

Monday, January 1
Wind Nor West. A fine day.

Tuesday, January 2
Wind Nor West. A fine hard frosty day.
Measuring remains of last year's stock today.

Wednesday, January 3
Wind N.N. West. A hard frosty day.

Thursday, January 4

Wind light from W.S.W in foreward. Wind Nor West with snow in afternoon.

Friday, January 5

Wind North by West. A real hard frosty day. Plover here at 10 am bound North. Landed merchandise for the Room. D.A. Ryan passenger to Catalina.

Saturday, January 6

Monday, January 8

Wind this morning South and snow falling during the day. Wind veered from Nor West.

Schr Native Lass still here.

Tuesday, January 9

Wind N.N. West a hard frosty day.

Wednesday, January 10

Wind Nor West. S.S Plover here this morning about 5 o'clock from the Northward calling at Bonavista - we shipped 6 ?? and 1 barrel Labrador fish by her.

Thursday, January 11

Friday, January 12

Wind S. West a beautiful day. Wrote F. Shears a note and ? price of tea 2/3. Kero oil 1/6 Tobacco 2/- and ? require fish payment.

Saturday, January 13

Wind Nor West a very frosty day

Monday, January 15

Wind North West a very sunny day and cold.

Tuesday, January 16

Wind Nor West blowing strong with frost. Reported that Plover left St. John's today for the Northward.

Wednesday, January 17

Wind N.N. West blowing strong and very frosty. Bay this morning all white.

S.S. Plover arrived here from Catalina about 1 o'clock today.

Michael Ryan Jun passenger by her.

Thursday, January 18

Wind today South and during evening veered to E.S. East blowing strong and snowing very fast.

The writer expected the Plover will reach Fogo or Seldom Come
By this evening

Friday, January 19

Wind N.N. West blowing strong and slob ice to be seen all over the Bay.

Saturday, January 20

Wind N.N. West hard frosty day. Bay full slob ice.

Edmund Ryan and Miller gone to Bonavista today with letters for James Ryan St. John's

Michael Flynn left service tonight.

Monday, January 22

Wind N.N. West blowing strong a fine day. Bay clear of ice today.
Sold James Long molasses pr price 2/10 by retail 3/1 tea by box
2/- Tobacco by box 1/10 retail 2/-

Tuesday, January 23

Wind N.N. West. Still blowing strong and very frosty. No news of the Plover's yet going South. Bay now clear of ice.

Wednesday, January 24

Fine beautiful day but cold and frosty.
Plover here tonight from the Northward.

Thursday, January 25

Fine day. Wind N.N. West and during evening dropped off.

Tonight wind from N. East blowing strong and snowing very fast.

Friday, January 26

Fine hard frosty day. Bay full slob ice wind West.

Saturday, January 27

Wind from the Western side and air keen with frost.

Big Mrs. Murphy as she was called breathed her last breath last night and is today waking.

Monday, January 29

Soft morning. Wind South. Slob just mooring off.

Tuesday, January 30

Wind this morning from South East. Air raw and cold - James Doyle Telegraph Operator on the hinges of death.

Wednesday, January 31

Calm beautiful morning and the sun shining gloriously. This evening the air is very soft and has all the appearance of a Southern wind.

Thursday, February 1

Wind South a strong breeze and a soft day. Slob clearing out very fast.

Friday, February 2

Wind Nor West a hard frosty day. Bay clear of ice today.

James Doyle Telegraph Operator here, died last night after a lingering illness.

Saturday, February 3

Wind N. N. West hard and frosty. James Doyle buried today.

Monday, February 5

Wind North - Bay full slob. lac Fennell here yesterday from Bonavista.

Tuesday, February 6

Morning - a hard and frosty wind Northly.

Wednesday, February 7

This is Ash Wednesday and a very cold and frosty morning. This evening wind from the Southward and a little snow falling.

Thursday, February 8

Wind N. West blowing strong and snow drifting.

Friday, February 9

Wind still from the Western quarter and frost all the time very severe - no news of any sort going round these days.

Saturday, February 10

Wind from Nor West blowing strong.

S.S. Eagle arrived last night to Catalina.

Monday, February 12

Wind N. East and snow falling very fast, the air today is somewhat milder than the past week.

Tuesday, February 13

Wind Nor West. Strong breeze and cold.

Wednesday, February 14

Wind this morning from the S. West a fine breeze and ice moving off out in the Bay.

Thursday, February 15

Wind N.N. West blowing strong. This is a very cold day. Mail man expected here tomorrow from Trinity.

Friday, February 16

Wind from the Western side but light and a very fine day.

Two of the Fords from Amherst Cove here this morning bound to Greenspond for the ice.

Saturday, February 17

Wind South. Ice clearing up and the air quite soft today.

This evening wind blowing very strong and not a pan of ice to be seen a little rain falling just now.

Monday, February 19

Fine beautiful morning and not much wind.

Few men employed today loading up store beside the three that were employed all winter.

Mail man not yet arrived.

Edmund Ryan and James of Spaniard's bay came here this evening from Bonavista.

Mail man arrived from Trinity this evening.

Tuesday, February 20

Wind West a fine day.

Gave Charles Quinton of Princess new staysail today, it was charged to Schr Princess on 1882 acct.

Wednesday, February 21

Wind S.S. W. in morning and S.S.E. in afternoon - A fine mild day.

D.A. Ryan and James Ryan left for Bonavista at 12 oclock to walk it.

Commenced to snow fast at 3 oclock and kept up very rough during the night and blew.

Thursday, February 22

Wind S. W. in morning and West in evening. Blowing all day with occasional snow showers during the day. Frosty evening.

Friday, February 23

Wind S.E. Commenced snowing at 12 and continued so all the afternoon.

Saturday, February 24

Wind N.N.E. A hard frosty day. Bay filling with ice.

Snowing a little and drifting all day. Large banks of snow drifted up last night.

Monday, February 26

Wind South blowing strong and a little glitter falling. Last night there was a great sea on.

D.A. Ryan and W. Craig came here last night about 11 o'clock from Bonavista.

Tuesday, February 27

Wind S. West soft and snowing.

Wednesday, February 28

Today wind from the Nor West cold and frosty.

Thursday, March 1

Wind North, light. A fine hard real frosty day. Bay frozen over with slob.

Our portion of Eagle crew gone to Bonavista today to sign agreement.

Six men at work on new store today.

Friday, March 2

Calm beautiful day. Wind South East about dinnertime. Ice going out Bay. Snowing in the evening. Eight seen at work on store today.

Saturday, March 3

A nice beautiful day the wind veered round the compass today for the first time this winter.

Mail man here from this evening from Trinity with mail.

Monday, March 5

Wind W.S. West a strong breeze, no ice to be seen from here now as the wind blew very strong yesterday evening from the Southward

S.S. Neptune arrived at Catalina this evening to take portion of her crew for the ice.

Tuesday, March 6

A fine hard day. Very keen and frosty. Wind Nor West.

S.S. Hector arrived at Catalina this evening to take men and proceed from that port to the seal fishery.

Wednesday, March 7

Wind this evening from the Southward putting the slob out Black Head Bay and snowing very fast.

Thursday, March 8

Wind this morning from S. West blowing very strong and sleet falling. No men to work this morning as the store but are commenced after dinner.

Sealers going to the ice in S.S. Eagle left for Catalina this morning.

Last night was considered one of the stormiest nights the oldest man here can recollect. I think it must be one of ?? Great storms that he expects on 11th March

Friday, March 9

Wind W. Sou West this morning and the bay from last night freezing is caught over with thin ice.

Ed Ryan & Richard Holleran are gone to Catalina today. Mail's pr S.S. Neptune to Catalina arrived here today.

Saturday, March 10

A fine beautiful day with but a little wind from the Western side - this morning about 8 oclock three steamers could be seen crossing the Bay bound North supposed to be the S.S. Eagle, Neptune & Hector all from Catalina.

Monday, March 12

Wind West S. West a fine breeze through the day.

Tuesday, March 13

Wind today S.S. West a good breeze the air rather soft.

Wednesday, March 14

Wind W.N. West a fine hard frosty day, the bay caught over last night with thin ice.

Thursday, March 15

Wind South a good breeze this evening and snow falling very fast.

Friday, March 16

Wind S.S. West a nice soft day. The snow today is getting a great cutting by the softness of the air.

Saturday, March 17

Wind West a beautiful day.

Monday, March 19

Wind S. West a nice soft beautiful day. Snow going away very freely.

Tuesday, March 20

Wind W.S. West a very fine day. Carpenters at store reports seeing a smoke of a steamer out in the Bay today.

Wednesday, March 21

Wind W.S.W. such another day as yesterday in regard to the ?

Thursday, March 22

Wind S.S. West blowing a good strong breeze through the day. This evening about sunset the rain came on and lasted until 9 o'clock at night when the wind veered from the Western side.

Friday, March 23

Today a fine beautiful day on but very little wind from the North East.

Saturday, March 24

Wind S.S. West a good breeze. Snow still cutting away very fast. Up to date no news from any of the steamers but every day we are expecting to hear of some arrival.

Monday, March 26

Wind this morning from North East but light and foggy. Snow wasting away very fast.

Tuesday, March 27

Wind today North East a good breeze and foggy.

Wm Alyward, Mick Maddox, Jas Matthews & Richd Monks commenced ploughing ? for store this morning - finished 700 feet today.

Wednesday, March 28

Wind North East, rain and chilly today.

Thursday, March 29

Wind South East today and the air very chilly. Jim Halleran, Jno Hartry & Jas Joy left this evening for Newman's Sound with letters. No news from any of the sealing steamers yet.

Friday, March 30

Wind W.S. West a good breeze.

Saturday, March 31

Wind West blowing strong, air hard and frosty. Mail man here today from Trinity with mail. Spreading out fish on the flakes today.

Monday, April 2

Wind N.N.E. in morning. Blowing stiff. Veered Easterly in evening. Ranger & Protius arrived at St. John's yesterday, the former with 30,000 young harps and the latter 24,000. Reports Eagle & other steamers in seals and doing well.

D.A. Ryan and John Holloway & crew gone to Catalina to get Annie ready- crew Jno Holloway, Jno Hartry, Jas Hartry, Wm & Pat Hartry.

Tuesday, April 3

Wind West - A fine hard day.

Lot of old seals seen in keels, Broad Cove and King's Cove today.

Wednesday, April 4

Wind E.N.E blew strong in morning and quite a hurricane in afternoon.

Near our store had to leave of clapboarding after dinner on account of wind.

Resolute arrived last night with 24,000 seals.

Thursday, April 5

A fine hard day. Wind N.N.East. Blew quite a gale all night.

Wind dropped off towards evening.

Vanguard arrived at Harbor Grace this morning with 30,000 seals.

Friday, April 6

Wind S.S. West a fine day. Commenced snowing at 2 pm.

Saturday, April 7

Wind W.N. West. A fine hard day. Blew very strong in forenoon.

Monday, April 9

Wind N. East this morning but light. Annie came here yesterday evening from Catalina.

Tuesday, April 10

Wind W.S. West. Annie left here today for Clode Sound calling at Newman Sound.

Fine day until 4 o'clock when it commenced snowing.

Wednesday, April 11

Wind N.N. West blowing strong and cold but fine.

Thursday, April 12

Friday, April 13

Calm moderate and warm day.

Michael Flynn left for Catalina to see how men were progressing with L. Gem at that place.

Saturday, April 14

Wind East blowing strong and snow falling very fast. This is a very stormy day.

Monday, April 16
Calm morning and dull.

Tuesday, April 17
Wind S.S. West. Native Lass here from Catalina this morning.
Peter Halleran here today from St. John's reports Eagle men making L9 per man.

Wednesday, April 18
A little wind from S.S. West, air very warm and sun shining gloriously. Schr Frog leaves for St. John's tonight.

Thursday, April 19

Wind W.N. West a fine breeze and the same like day putting out wharf head today.

Friday, April 20

Fine day with sunshine.

Saturday, April 21

Wind South blowing strong air raw and chilly. Evangeline here waiting a time for St. John's she is laden with staves, rails & pickets for D. Driscoll.

Monday, April 23

Wind S. West in morning. A fine day. Wind veering about in afternoon with snow showers.

D.A. Ryan left for St. John's yesterday morning in Schr Evangeline - also a crew to sail around Young Flirt. Mick Donovan, Jas Sullivan B.C., Mick Lane and ? Murphy.

Tuesday, April 24

Wind S.E. A fine day but cold and raw.

S.S. Plover here at 8 am bound North. Rev. G.W. Veitch passenger by her. This has been her first trip for the season.

Wednesday, April 25

Wind E.S.E. to South. A dull foggy day. Commenced raining in evening.

Thursday, April 26

Wind W by North - a nice fine day.

Dazzler here from the Bay this evening.

Crew left this morning for Catalina via Bonavista to bring round Schr Little Gem viz Edward McGrath, James Aylward, & John Hartry.

Friday, April 27

Wind A fine day. Imogene left for St. John's today.

Saturday, April 28

Wind SS W A fine day. Annie from Bay this forenoon with sticks. L. Gem from Catalina.

9pm - Annie ready for St. John's and Gem for Conche.

Young Flirt from St. John's at daylight.

Annie's crew cutting sticks viz 238

John Holloway, Thos Murphy O.H. 42/6 pd Murphy to get 12/6 others 2/6

Wm White 20/, Jas Walsh O.H. 20/ pd Hartry 12/6
2/6

James White 42/6, James Hartry 42/6 pd Philpott 12/6
2/6

Thomas Philpott 42/6 pd Jas White 12/6 2/6

?? marked this X goes to St. John's in Annie with above sticks

Monday, April 30

Wind S.S. West. A fine day, foggy morning but cleared up. Annie, Native Lass & Young Bride left for St. John's this morning. Little Gem left for Conche daylight yesterday morning. Ed McGrath, Jas Aylward, Jno Hartry & Mike Flynn crew passengers. Wm Flynn, two Hillards, Pat Hartry, Johanna Dwyer and Kate Aylward.

Tuesday, May 1

Wind N.N.W. A fine day and a fine tome to St. John's Rd. Holleran, Jim Murphy and Wm Murphy came in service this morning. Big John Ricketts and Pat Ryan of Knight's Cove caulking Y. Flirt.

Wednesday, May 2

Wind went right round - a fine day. Michael Donovan and James Sullivan came in service this morning.

Thursday, May 3

A fine day. Wind S.S. W.

Holiday today.

Wm Quinton and John Costello here from the Bay early this morning.

Wm Quinton landed a trifle of lumber and will go to Bonavista in morning with hoops from Moss & Marshfield.

Friday, May 4

A wet disagreeable morning. Evangeline here from St. John's this morning - has on board 250 bags M. Bread.

Joy Fennell came in service this morning - Came from Bonavista Wednesday night and went to Mrs David Ryans to board.

Saturday, May 5

Wind W.N. W a beautiful day.

Mary Belle and Rosanna and Frog left for St. John's this morning.

Monday, May 14

A fine day - Wind S.S. West in forenoon and veered to N.E. in afternoon - very little wind all day.

? Barker O. Hall hails for 50 qtls & ? Long for 20 qtls fish out traps.

Tuesday, May 15

Wind South - a fine day - done bottom on one side Flirt today. N.

Lass & Imogene here today from St. John's. Ryder gone to Bonavista today. Not much fish going these two days in trap with jigger.

Mick Walsh P.C. came in service at 5 pm this evening.

Wednesday, May 16

Wind South. Blew quite a gale all day. Annie arrived from St.

John's last night.

D.A. Ryan passenger by her also Richard White.

Olas Brown of Jno came in service today.

Thursday, May 17

Wind S.S.W. A fine day. Nonpareil taking in salt today
Jim Sullivan B.C. absent today.

Friday, May 18

Misty morning. Cleared away fine, Wind Easterly.
Jim Sullivan B.C. absent today.

Saturday, May 19

Wind S.S. West, a real fine day. Put Young Flirt's salt on board
today. 62 Hhds

Wm Coffin, Jno Brown of Thos and Tom Handcock also Thos
Brown done very well with fish out traps today and yesterday got from ten to fifteen qtls each.

James Sullivan B.C. absent today. Annie went to Plate Cove last night to take part cargo of hoops for St. John's.

Nonpareil ready for fishery.

Monday, May 21

This morning the Little Gem came from French Shore.

Mark Delaney, James Ryan B.R. & Patrick Matthews came in service this morning.

Tuesday, May 22

Wind S.S. West dull and wet. Nonpariel sailed today for Fogo or Brigus Cove on the hunt of fish. May God speed her and that she may get a full load.

Active & Young Flirt crews busy today getting ready for the fishery.

James Alyward commenced on Annie today.

Wednesday, May 23

Thursday, May 24

Wind South by West A dull day. Telegram here from Bonavista at 10 1/2 am. to D.A.R. informing him that the Janie Brown was capsized and that Schooners were required to tow her in to some harbor - The Little Gem was immediately got under way and the Skipper went in her. The Young Flirt followed shortly after. Princess all ready for the fishery. Went up Bay last night.

Friday, May 25

A rainy morning. calm. Cleared away fine after breakfast. Young Flirt & Little Gem here from BVista this evening after towing in Schr Janie Brown - The Janie B capsized under the Black Head Shore at ten am yesterday and was towed in BV at ten today partly by Y Flirt & Gem and mostly by skiffs after the wind moderated. The Janie B was on her way to BV from Catalina and had on board 65 Hhds for her fishing voyage.

Saturday, May 26

Wind North A dull day. Schrs Mary Ellen, Imogene, Active and Young Flirt all ready for the fishery.

News here today from Cottles Island that the Nonpareil is there getting a new foremast put in, she having carried away her spar off the Funks on Wednesday morning.

Monday, May 28

Wind S.S. West. A dull day. No fish going here today. Doing well at Broad Cove with traps & hook & line - boats hook & line from one to three quintals.

Annie left for St. John's Saturday night.

L. Gem went up to Southward Bay last night for some lumber.

Wm Ivy? here from BVista this evening for salt - Schr Young Flirt sailed Monday ? for Fogo in search of fish. May she get a full load.

Tuesday, May 29

Wind from South to N.East and at sunset quite calm. Traps today nothing, yesterday at Keels skiffs with hook & line from 2 to 5 qtls.

Today, Greyhound & Mary took supplies and will leave tonight for home.

Wednesday, May 30

Wind S.W. by West. Dull day with occasional showers and thunder. Sea shove out several times between showers. L. Gem here from Southward bay this evening.

Thursday, May 31

Wind W.N. West. A fine day Blew strong in morning but because quite calm ? midday - Boats at Keels and Broad Cove from one to three quintals with hook & line.

Traps doing nothing.

Busy times now fitting out the fishing Schooners.

Friday, June 1

Wind South West. A very close sultry day.

Lady Bird, Mary Bell, Evangeline and Guthrie getting ready for fishery.

Good sign of fish here and at adjacent coves but no bait to be had.

Saturday, June 2

Monday, June 4

Fine day with the wind from the North East - No fish to be caught in traps for the past week but reports say that one on the ground if bait could be had.

At Keels last week the hook & liner men done well as they got a little herring bait from Salvage.

Tonight the Annie reached here from Saint John's.

Tuesday, June 5

A nice fine day the Annie discharged today and will heave down tomorrow if fine to stop leaks in her bottom.

Wednesday, June 6

Wind today N. East blowing strong which causes to keep back some of the Schooners which were ready for sailing.

Sea ? today to the Annie down.

Thursday, June 7

Dull day with the wind from N. East but dropping off during evening.

Caulking Annie's topsides this evening. No fish in traps today.

Friday, June 8

Wind South blowing strong and raining very hard this morning.

The Schr Little Gem was the first this morning for French Shore in quest of fish followed by Mary Bell, Guthrie & Native Lass. May God speed them for full loads fish.

Saturday, June 9

Annie finished caulking and ballasted today for the Bay.

Monday, June 11

Wind Easterly, calm and raining nearly all the forenoon. Cleared up at 12 o'clock.

Annie left here early this morning to go up the Bay for Jas Long's freight.

Imogene left after breakfast for Labrador. May she get a ? trip.
Vindex from Liverpool at Bonavista now with springs good etc.

Tuesday, June 12

Wind South blowing strong and raining very fast. Reaper here today taking balance of her salt.

Plover not yet arrived from the Northward.

Plover arrived at 6 o'clock reports Nonpareil crew have trapped 200 q'ts fish at La Scie. Mr. D.A. R. Took passage for Bonavista.

Wednesday, June 13

A fine morning. Moderate breeze at S.W.

Patrick Matthews absent 2/5 day on 11th inst.

Richard Holleran absent today, sick.

Thursday, June 14

Fine day. Sultry. Wind Southerly. Scud at Bonavista today for cordage etc ex Vindex.

Friday, June 15

Wind Southerly in morning. A splendid day.

First lot of our goods here from Bonavista today ex Vindex per Wm Wells in Roper's Brook.

Wind Easterly in evening.

? bait obtainable - fishing good.

Saturday, June 16

Wind Southerly. Another splendid day.

Scud with the remainder of our goods ex Vindex here from Bonavista this afternoon.

Fishing very good at Bonavista but bait not plentiful - the same here.

Susan, Jas Brown here from Keels tonight with qtls fish - has been fishing there this Spring.

Sunday morning the Annie came out of the Bay after spending a whole week to load lumber.

Monday, June 18

A real fine day - calm. A little wind to N. East at 12 o'clock.

Annie left for St. John's just before dinner,

Punts bringing in from 2 to 5 qtls fish today with caplin for bait. May this state of things continue for a long spurt.

Joe Fennell gone to Keels today after breakfast with goods etc to open a shop during summer months.

Tuesday, June 19

Foggy morning with a light air of wind from the North East. The Schooner Mary B? is here this morning on her to Labrador.

Bait plenty today and every punt bringing in some fish.

Wednesday, June 20

Wind Easterly - dull foggy morning. Calm. Nice fresh breeze in evening.

Bishop McDonald arrived here from Trinity last night and left for Northward today in Plover.

Bait scarce today.

Thursday, June 21

Calm beautiful day, today the sun is shining very much and the heat is intense. Caplin very scarce today in Black Head Bay and without it no fish can be caught.

Edmund Ryan started for Trinity to go on to St. John's to overtake the Annie.

Friday, June 22

Saturday, June 23

Monday, June 25

Wind light but from the N. East. Evangeline came here this evening from Seldom Come By and her reports are right contrary from what we have heard by Plover she lands only 41 1/2 qtls fish.

Boat Scud from Bonavista with 18 Hhds salt today ex Vindex Felting store today.

Tuesday, June 26

Wind E.N. East but very light. English Schooner Heather bell arrived here via Bonavista this evening.

Wednesday, June 27

Wind South and rainy, took little goods from Heather Bell today.

Boat Scud went to Keels with salt.

Thursday, June 28

Fine day discharging salt and dry goods today from Schooner
No fish today with hook & line or with traps.
Sent goods in charge Mrs Ryan to Stock Cove today.

Friday, June 29

Saturday, June 30

Wind S.S. West a fine day. Annie here this morning from St.
John's via Bonavista and discharged today.

Monday, July 2

Wind S. West a good breeze.

No fish with hook & line or in traps these few days past.

Agreed with Pat Ryan this evening for to serve me three months at L6 per month he to find himself.

Tuesday, July 3

Wednesday, July 4

Wind N.N. East this morning and from the S. West this evening a good breeze. Gallahue's arrived this evening from Tilton Harbor with their boat load of fish reports the Dazzle & Walker at that place doing well.

Thursday, July 5

A nice fine day. Dazzler arrived just before dinner from Tilton Harbor with about 400 qtl fish.

Friday, July 6

Wind South West a beautiful day. S.S Plover here this morning from St. John's she being a few days late this time on account of her going to Halifax.

Saturday, July 7

Calm day rain falling this evening. Annie taking in salt today for the French Shore from Schr Heather Bell.
Robert Power came by Frog today.

Monday, July 9

A fine day, wind at W.S.W. Schr Thomas Guthrie arrived from Harbor Round last night with 250 qtls of fish reports Nonpareil, Young Flirt and Little Gem with good fares; Peter Holleron came by T Guthrie.

Dazzler clear of her fish this evening.

Tuesday, July 10

Peter Halleron came in service today and helped to put goods on board Schr Annie.

The Annie has all goods on board this evening for French Shore.

Wednesday, July 11

Wind S.S. West a nice breeze. The Annie is just going to start calling first at Brent's Cove, Coachman's Cove and Conche just 1 o'clock.

Heather Bell out in the stream and now ready for a start.

Thursday, July 12

Wind North East. Very rainy day and blowing very strong.
Nonpareil here from Harbor Round at 11 am hailing 400 qtls fish.
Report Y. Flirt with 350 and L. Gem with 160 qtls - in same place.

Friday, July 13

Wind light but from N. East and a little drizzling rain falling. Schr
Thomas Guthrie all ready now waiting for a change of wind.

Saturday, July 14

Wind Southerly - A dull morning, but cleared away, real fine after breakfast.

Finished felting the roof of store today.

Heather Belle left port for St. John's this afternoon - Thos Guthrie left for Labrador this evening.

D.A.R. & Mrs R gone to Trinity this evening - The former to engage ? Y. Bride to Labrador.

Monday, July 16
Wind Southerly. A fine day.
Building a flake today.

Tuesday, July 17
Calm dull day.
No fish going in traps or cod nets those days.

Wednesday, July 18
Plover here this morning from St. John's she is going to Battle Harbor this trip and expects to be back about Thursday night next.
Pat Dwyer & Son is to put L6.10.0 pr month and find themselves for 3 or 4 months if required.
Dwyer Senr Is to get L 5.0.0
Dwyer Jun is to get L 2.0.0

Thursday, July 19

A beautiful day. Scud gone to Keels and Plate Cove. E.J. R. gone to forever place dunning.

Mr. D.A.R. drove to Plate Cove this evening, prospecting.

A little fish ex traps.

Pat Dwyer Sen in service today.

Friday, July 20

Saturday, July 21

Wind Southerly - a dull day with occasional dwyes of rain.

Boat Scud gone to BVista this morning with some oil hogshead.

P.M. Prince here from Bonavista with cargo flour and kerosene oil. Scud here after Prince with load of pork. Both discharged tonight.

Monday, July 23

Calm dull day. Christian here in Schr Lizzie for fish also ? bound to Newman's Cove for fish for Jas Ryan.

Isaac Maddox came to work this morning at L6.10.0 for month finding himself. Patrick Dwyer Sen in service today.

Lady Bird hence to R.C. Island on Saturday night last with the good face of 600 qtls from French Shore.

Tuesday, July 24

Wind South a strong breeze with very heavy rain.

Squid jigged yesterday evening at Stock Cove in abundance also jigged at Newman's Cove.

Wednesday, July 25

Calm dull day. S.S. Plover here this evening from Labrador she same in Thirty three hours from Batts Cove, her reports are very good from the Straits Belle Isle and Labrador Coast as far ? seine & traps from 5 to 700 qtls. Boats avege from 20 to 70 qtls.

Punts from 2 to 3 qtls fish today on squid bait.

Thursday, July 26

Strong breeze today from N.N. East with heavy showers of rain. Little Gem arrived about 3 o'clock from Harbor Round with about 250 qtls fish reports from Young Flirt 500 qtls at the same place.

Friday, July 27

Wind N.N. East a strong breeze and heavy sea on. Little Gem discharging fish today.

Wm Joy arrived today here from the Grey Islands with a boat load of fish.

Saturday, July 28

Calm day and fine. Busy discharging Little Gem today. A craft arrived here this evening from St. John's for Grieve House to take a load dry fish.

Monday, July 30

Fine fish day and every one busy at fish.

R & N Monks & boys caught 8 qtls of fish on squid bait.

John " crew " 7"

Tuesday, July 31

A dull day not fit for handling dry fish.

Schr Little Gem clear of fish and cleaning @ own.

Wm Flynn gave to Southern Bay to see James Quinton who deserted from Schr Princess.

Wednesday, August 1

Fine beautiful day.

Painting bottom Little Gem today and ballasted her for fish collecting.

William Flynn and Ed McGrath in service today for at seventy shillings pr month 7% D.R.

Good fishing with squid bait.

Thursday, August 2

A fine day. Wind W.S.W. Schr Little Gem gone to Broad Cove and Scud to Plate Cove collecting Young Flirt arrived today from Harbor Round with a good trip of fish. Fishery good here on squid. James Keough here today taking salt for second trip he weighed out 125 qtls for 4 5/8 shares gave him notes to Andrew Patrick & Wm Keough to take over fish for J.R. & Co and to get receipts from them in J.R. & Co ?

Patrick Keough 22

William " 30

Andrew " 73

Friday, August 3

A fine day.

Lady bird here taking salt for second trip that turnout of fish from her first trip was 545 qtls, heavily salted and estimated to turn out dried 600 qtls.

Little Gem gone to Bonavista with fish collected at broad Cove yesterday and today.

Saturday, August 4

A dull morning. Wind Southerly veered at noon and cleared up but not to continue on the whole bay not fit for dry fish handling. Scud from Plate Cove tonight.

Monday, August 6
A fine day. Wind West S. West.
At fish today.

Tuesday, August 7
Wind W. S. West a fine day.
Annie arrived from French Shore with fish. James Quinton came in service this morning and went on board the Annie.
Schr Hilda called here today for supercargo took 4 fish barrows?
Stand from us.
Barrows and stand returned again all right.

Wednesday, August 8

Thursday, August 9

Young Flirt finished taking on her fish & salt today by the wharf.

This evening very heavy rain with thunder & lightning.

Plover here from North at 8 o'clock pm. Andrew Linfield, Carpenter for new store came by here and went to Mrs Thomas Ryan's to board.

Friday, August 10

A dull morning. Wind N. East.

James Ryan (Bay Roberts) under pay today.

Saturday, August 11

Tonight about 12 o'clock L. Gem started for Bryan's Cove and Coachman's Cove.

Sunday evening - wind S.S. West Schooner May Cory arrived here this evening from St. John's to take cargo cod fish. Andy Walsh by her.

Monday, August 13

Schooner May Cory By the wharf today discharging salt.

Wind Southerly and dull.

Annie left last night for Conche she has a splendid time today.

Tuesday, August 14

Dull day. A little wind from the Northward.

Greyhound left here this evening for French Shore fishing.

Wednesday, August 15

Showery all day.

This being Lady Day, no regular work was done. Steamer here from South at 7 am.

Thursday, August 16

A fine day, busy at fish handling. Schr Young Flirt leaves tonight for BVista to load cullage fish & oil. May Cory discharged/
This evening the Janie Brown came here from Knight's Cove after landing her fish.

Friday, August 17

Janie Brown hove down this morning and the writer examined her keel. Joe Durdle arrived here from Newman's Cove today about 12 oclock to do the Janie's keel.
Shipped 148 quintals today in May Cory.

Saturday, August 18

Dull in morning, cleared at 10 oclock. Calm day.
Shipped 300 qtls fish on May Cory.

Monday, August 20

A fine morning. Wind West fish handling. Scud gone to Keels.

A high tide this morning. Janie Brown on beach to look at her bottom and fix keel.

English Schooner Edith Eleanor arrived yesterday (Sunday) from St. John's with salt.

At noon commenced raining and continued all afternoon, shipped (am) 120 qtls on May Cory.

Tuesday, August 21

Not a fine day. Wind S.S.W.

Hove down and finished Janie Brown's bottoms.

Shipped 208 qtls in May Cory.

Wednesday, August 22

Wind S.S. West sultry and cloudy, occasional showers of rain. No fish handling today. Plover S.S. expected tonight.

Thursday, August 23

A poor fish drying day. Wind.

Plover from North at 1 o'clock brought very favorable news from Labrador the Schooner Mary Ellen was at Square Islands with all salt used and some fish without salt on deck, reports Princess 600, Native Lass 400.

Friday, August 24

A dull day. Wind S.S.W.

Schooner Young Flirt left tonight for St. John's.

Saturday, August 25

A fine day with wind at ?

Young Flirt has a good time.

Shipped on May Cory 320 qtls.

Monday, August 27

A fine day. Wind SW by W. Ocean Bride home from the fishery yesterday with about 200 qtls fish.
Shipped on Meg Cory 240 qtls fish

Tuesday, August 28

A fine day with wind at West.
Schooner Prince here early this morning with fish for May Cory.
Shipped on May Cory ex Prince 260 qtls, in store 190, total 450.

Wednesday, August 29

A fine morning, very moderate S.W. wind.
Little Gem here from French Shore with fish and oil. Plover from South.
May Cory hauled off from wharf. Edith Eleanor comes into berth to discharge salt.

Shipped on May Cory, ex Prince	142 qtls
" " " ex Little gem & Store	110 "
Total	252 "

Thursday, August 30

A very wet morning. Wind E.S.E.

At 11 o'clock came on to blow heavily and heavy sea hove in. Edith Eleanor bursted stem moorings and came in nearer to the wharf striking heavily on the bottom. Captain threw some salt overboard.

Friday, August 31

A dull day. Moderate breeze from S.S.W. sea gone down; discharging salt from Edith Eleanor which ship has to be constantly pumped to keep her free.

Captain noted protest today.

Saturday, September 1

L.L. Crosby will present an order signed by Robert Power for L 7.4.0 we are to pay it on his a/c. Also he has a ? Bowring St. John's 2 brls flour, 30 lb butter and shop foods 2 o/ worth see about it

Monday, September 3

Dull morning, wind S.S. West. Young Flirt here from St. John's also M. Bell from Labrador with about 600 quintals fish discharging salt this morning from Edith Eleanor.

Tuesday, September 4

Fine day, but blowing very strong wind about N.N. West. Discharged all salt today from Edith Eleanor. Total discharge Hhds.
Young Flirt left this morning about daylight for Goose Bay.
Patrick Dwyer Junr left service today.

Wednesday, September 5

A fine day. Wired W.N.W. Little Gem gone to Broad Cove, Scud to Stock Cove
Edith Eleanor ballasting today.
Prince from Bonavista this evening with fish for May Cory.

Thursday, September 6

A fine morning with strong breeze of n.N. wind. Plover here from Labrador at 8:30 o'clock.

Shipped on May Cory ex Prince 269, ex store 243 total 512.

Friday, September 7

A fine morning with moderate breeze from W.S.W.

Edith Eleanor finished ballasting today.

J&M ship ? called off the harbor ? the ? on French Shore with Josh Aylward & the French.

Shipped on May Cory ex Rosy Nell 240 1/4 qtls, ex store 86

Total 326 1/4

Saturday, September 8

A fine morning wind from North at 10 o'clock veered Easterly & very moderate.

Schooner Edith Eleanor left for St. John's this morning.

Shipped on May Cory ex Prince 77 1/4, ex Meteor 185 1/2, store 81 1/4

Monday, September 10

Morning dull. Strong breeze from West. Cleared up ? wind going Northerly but blew hard.

Loading Little Gem for Brents & Coachman's Cove already tonight.

Tuesday, September 11

A fine day Wind W.S.W.

Shipped on May Cory ex Rosy Nell 242 qtls fish

Isaac Maddocks not working today.

Wednesday, September 12

A fine morning. Wind W.S.W. Plover here from South at 5:30 oclock. Mr D.A. Ryan went North by her. Boat Scud from Keels with load of fish, culled and stored same.

Shipped on May Cory Medium fish today viz ex Flying Arrow 251 qtls, ex store 45 Total 296

Got boat Scud ready to start for Keels

? flour & molasses

News from T. Guthrie Labrador dated 21st ? have 4 or 500 qtls.

Thursday, September 13

A dull morning. Wind S.W. cleared after breakfast, commenced shipping fish on May Cory.

12 o'clock Rosy Nell arrived from Bonavista, 1 o'clock rain cleared up at 3 o'clock finished discharging Meteor.

Dried some and shipped on May Cory 18 qtls fish (med) landed from Prince.

Shipped on M Cory 241 qtls.

Joe Fennell here from Keels, wrote Bonavista by Joy.

Friday, September 14

A dull morning. Wind N.W. cleared up at 9:30 commenced discharging fish from Rosy Nell and May Cory.

Worked till 3 o'clock then too dull received Telegram from Mr.

D.A.R from Tilt Cove 11 o'clock chance offering wrote James Quinton also Reuben Wicks. Received letter from Robt Power Supercargo Hilda sent copy to Bonavista.

Shipped on May Cory 86 qtls ex Rosy Nell

Saturday, September 15

A soft morning. Wind E.N.S. cleared up pm commenced shipping fish on May Cory. Bought George Brown Senr fish to get midway for Cory at St. John's dealing price. Writer on board Cory all this pm. Shipped on her 138 qtls making now on board of small mble 3897 1 0

Medium " 467

00

4364 1 0

Monday, September 17

A fine morning. soft wind at SW working on May Cory after breakfast finished loading 3:30pm.

Schr Annie arrived from French Shore with a load of fish sent from Keels.

Messrs D.A. & E.J. Tyan came from French Shore by Annie.

Tuesday, September 18

A dull morning wind S.S.W. May Cory left at sunrise this morning for Gibraltar. Rose Nell left for Bonavista Mr D.A. Ryan passenger.

Wednesday, September 19

Wind today N.N. East fine hard day. Annie landing fish today.

Thursday, September 20

Wind E.N. East A dull day with occasional showers of rain.

Friday, September 21

Wind N.E. A dull day.

Saturday, September 22

Wind Northerly- A hard kind of day but with occasional showers.

Finished discharging French Shore fish from Annie today, and put 264 qts cull on board for ballast to go to Broad Cove and thence to St. John's.

Monday, September 24

Tuesday, September 25

Wednesday, September 26

Y. Flirt here tonight from O. Hall with cargo fish from Lady Bird =, Greyhound & Mary.

Schooner Annie left for St. John's tonight.

Thursday, September 27
Wind S.W. A fine day.
Loading Y. Flirt with cull fish for St. John's

Friday, September 28
Wind Southerly - A little soft today for fish drying.
Y. Flirt left for St. John's last night
Advance here today from B.I. Cove with load of fish to be stored and await arrival of fish vessel from St. John's.

Saturday, September 29
Dull day with occasional rain showers.

Monday, October 1

Wind S.S. West A dull day. Misty.

Recorded all our office books etc. this evening from Wm Aylward's store, and sent him the key of old shop and office after supper.

Young Prince here from the Bay.

Tuesday, October 2

Wind from N. West a good breeze but air cold and chilly.

Schr Advance discharging fish today. Schooner Island Gem called her from the Bay today bound to St. John's with dock posts.

Wednesday, October 3

Wind S.E. A very disagreeable day. Raining very hard during the day.

Schr S.S. Brown here today from Labrador.

Thursday, October 4

Wind S. by West. Landing fish ex Advance today although the air is rather soft.

Plover here tonight from Northward - about 9 o'clock.

Friday, October 5

Wind W.S. West this morning and hard. The appearance of a fine day.

Saturday, October 6

Wind Nor West a fine day for fish handling.

Schr Advance left here for Bird Island Cove for another load fish.

Monday, October 8

Calm morning with sunshine.

The English Man O War passed up to Knight's Cove this morning
re - Alyward case with French.

A fine day for handling fish.

Tuesday, October 9

A very fine day. Wind veering about all day. Annie here from St.

John's at dinner time followed shortly after by Schr Edith Eleanor.

The latter vessel has been on dock and was thoroughly repaired after her knocking on the rocks in the port.

Annie discharged this evening - E Eleanor moored by wharf to commence discharge ballast in morning.

Wednesday, October 10

Plover here this morning from St. John's bringing letters from

James Ryan and Robert Power of Labrador reporting Hilda sailed from there on 25th Sept with 3400 qtls.

Dull day Edith Eleanor discharging ballast today by the wharf.

Thursday, October 11

Calm dull day until evening when the sky cleared off and sun shone out. Shipped 230 qtls today on the Annie.

Friday, October 12

A little wind from the Northward lot, fine day for handling fish.

Shipped on board Edith Eleanor over 600 qtls and on the Annie over 300

Sea making this evening.

Saturday, October 13

Wind S.S. West and a little rain falling. Big sea on this morning.

Vessel lying by the wharf.

Monday, October 15

Wet dull day. Shipped Hhds oil on Annie today.

English Schooner Ethel arrived from St. John's yesterday.

Tuesday, October 16

Wind N.W. and veering about nearly all morning. Very fine day shipped on E Eleanor 792 qtls on Annie 378 qtls cull & big mble.

Annie already to sail - wind today North a strong breeze.

Wednesday, October 17

A fine day for shipping fish. No good for drying.

Shipped on E Eleanor 795 qtls ex Advance & Arrow & store today.

Annie sailed for St. John's at 11 am

Nov-Decb.

Thursday, October 18

Wind West a fine beautiful day shipping fish on Edith Eleanor today.

The Little Gem arrived today from French Shore with a load fish Wm Flynn went to board home this evening amt from tomorrow wages now L 5-10-0

Friday, October 19

Fine day. Edith Eleanor finished loading today and shipped 59 qtls on Ethel.

Saturday, October 20

Wind S.S. West rather dull Edith Eleanor sailed this morning about 8 o'clock calling at Gibraltar. Schooner Hafren arrived about 4 o'clock from St. John's this Schooner takes a cargo a Labrador fish say 38,000.

Monday, October 22

Wind E.N. East blowing strong and showers rain falling - Schooner Thomas Guthrie arrived yesterday evening she being the last craft from Labrador. Robert Power Supercargo came by her.

Tuesday, October 23

Wind dropping off but showers of hail and rain falling occasionally.

Sent telegram to John Goodridge St. John's appraising him the loss of Schooner Mary Jane which drove ashore Sunday night.
Wind then N. East.

Wednesday, October 24

Thursday, October 25

Fine day shipping fish on Ethel today.

Friday, October 26

Fine day but calm. Unloading Nonpareil today - also shipping fish on Ethel today and cleaning ballast out of Hafren.

Saturday, October 27

Wind from N.N. West hard cool day but not much draught for fish. Young Flirt left here today for plate Cove calling at Birchy Cove to land. R White with letters for Bonavista.

Boat Scud from Keels this evening with ? of stock from that adventure.

Monday, October 29

Wind North blowing strong and fine for fish handling had about 300 qtls spread.

Ed McGrath left Little Gem.

Tuesday, October 30

Calm morning but sky rather dull - at 12 o'clock wind freshened from South with rain and sleet until at 5 o'clock it blew a hurricane and throwing in a big sea - Has 295 qtls shipped on the Hafren now. Ethel about 1700 qtls shore.

Wednesday, October 31

Thursday, November 1

Annie from St. John's this evening. Jas Quinton of Jas leaves service tomorrow morning.

Friday, November 2

Fine day. Shipped fish on both vessels today. Labrador & shore.

Saturday, November 3

Calm day but not very drying. Shipping fish on Hafren & Ethel today.

Ned Sullivan joined Annie today @ 70/ per month.

Annie left Monday morning or French Shore wind S. West.

Monday, November 5

Fine day shipping fish on Hafren & Ethel today.

MI Ryan of Dd at work - goes as one of crew of L. Gem.

Tuesday, November 6

Fine day shipping fish on Ethel & Hafren today.

Wednesday, November 7

Thursday, November 8

Wind S. East raining this morning - agreed with Mark & Jno Walker to do the following to the Mary Bell the coming winter;

Put in 2 large breast hooks L 1.0.0
2 - ? at bulk heads - 10-
8 - knees by the beams 2 -
2 stringers from stem to stern
6x4 inches ?? 4 -
1 thick stem board 1 -
A piece new stem 1 -

Fore gaff & boom - 10-

If more is done than the following the writer will pay for according to the work done. The foregoing to be done strong and faithfully according to arrangement.

This is a very stormy day.

Friday, November 9

Wind North blowing strong with showers of rain.

Schr Prince & P.? left here this evening for Bonavista.

Saturday, November 10

Wind South. Young Flirt left here for Conche this morning.

Monday, November 12

Tuesday, November 13

Wednesday, November 14

Mr D.A. Ryan drove to Trinity this evening to go on to St. John's by Plover.

Andrew Walsh, Culler left by Plover for St. John's this evening 6 o'clock.

Thursday, November 15

Friday, November 16

Wind North in the morning but light and East in the evening blowing a good breeze and snowing very fast. Shipped on Hafren today about 260 qtls. Earnest Carroll left for St. John's last night about 9 o'clock and the L. Gem did not start until 7 o'clock this morning although being ready since Wednesday evening- Carroll I should say had a splendid run to St. John's ? he carried on last night was fine and a nice breeze from the Nor West. D.A. Ryan by here tonight from Bonavista with fish for Ethel.

Saturday, November 17

Wind this morning from N.N.West blowing strong last night wind from E.N. East blew a perfect gale with snow falling very fast ? Schr Janie Brown in /. From Bonavista Cape for this port ? the Harbor and ran ashore at Knight's Cove, crew saved. Ethel finished this evening with 3584 quintals prime dry shore cod fish.

Monday, November 19

Calm day with but little wind from S. West. Schr Ethel sailed for Lisbon with 3584 quintals dry mble fish - shipping fish on Hafren today she has now on board 3815 qtls. Roxanna, Native Lass, and Imogene left this morning for the bay to lay up for winters quarters.

Tuesday, November 20

All goods brought down from Stock Cove today, which was there in charge of Mrs Ryan.

Wednesday, November 21

Princess gone up to Sweet bay to lay up. Crew Wm Carroll, Tom Carroll, Jno & Jim Hartly and Sam Coffin.

Shipped 194 1/2 qtls Lab Fish today on Hafren total now on board 4008 1/2 qtls 2008 1/2 over chartered quantity.

L. Gem arrived at St. John's this morning at 9am.

Thursday, November 22

Friday, November 23

Saturday, November 24

Annie here tonight from Coachman's & Brent's Cove.
Jim Aylward & Jim Brown, Patrick Dwyer left schooner.

Monday, November 26

Wind N.N. East a strong breeze and snow falling in showers. The Schr Annie arrived Sunday morning from French Shore bringing home Michael Martin and Peter Holleran from their selling posts after the summer.

Tuesday, November 27

Calm morning and fine spreading out Labrador fish this morning to dry.

James Brown left Annie tonight.

Wednesday, November 28

Wind today from N.N. East and fine. Shipped 405 qtls Labr fish on Hafren today making her quantity 4700 qtls order for Lisbon for orders. Sent this evening two bills lading by Plover to Bowring Bros St. John's

Young Flirt here tonight from Conche with remains of Flynn ? from that quarter.

Thursday, November 29

Fine hard day. Took fish out Annie today and got spar down from Knight's Cove for her.

Hafren also moored

Lady Bird arrived.

Friday, November 30

Fine day for fish handling.

Hafren sailed today for Lisbon with 4700 quintals Labrador fish.

Mick Donovan left Young Flirt tonight

Wm. Flynn leaves service tonight.

Saturday, December 1

Wind South a good breeze the Young Flirt left for Sweet Bay -??

Cove this morning to lay up for the winter.

Also Nonpareil for Bloody bay.

The writer expects the Little Gem to Catalina today from St. John's
Lady Bird discharging this morning I told John Murphy, J? Bowen
& Michl Joy that I will not pay them cash for their share fish today it was very green and soft and 12/6 would be the price for it.

Monday, December 3

Wind South, dull and soft setting Annie for stay & rigging today also discharging her ballast
Jim Alyward to work on Annie today.

Tuesday, December 4

Young Flirt crew here from Sweet Bay this evening after laying up Schooner.
Peter Halleron left service this night.

Wednesday, December 5

Wind West A fine day. Finished loading Annie today.
L. Gem's crew here from Catalina tonight after laying up Schooner on her way from St. John's

Thursday, December 6

Wind East a very snowy day and veered to N.N. East.

Steamer Plover left here for the Northward about 1 o'clock today bound as far as Conche.

D.A. Ryan and wife came overland today from Trinity.

Friday, December 7

Wind N. West and veering in to S. West Annie left here for Catalina about 10 o'clock today bound to St. John's with fish and oil.

Wrote ? Shears saying the following to be paid next autumn flour 40/, molasses 2/10, kero oil 1/4, tobacco 2 butter 1/2 tea 2/ but I would not bind myself to supply any quantity of either.

Saturday, December 8

Monday, December 10

Tuesday, December 11

Wind this morning South but moderate afternoon veered to N.

East a good breeze.

I expect the Annie will reach St. John's tonight as on Monday night wind veered off from Nor West.

Wednesday, December 12

Wind N.N. East a fine breeze a hard day.

Thursday, December 13

Wind about Sou West A fine day.

Plover here on her way South this morning at 2 1/2

D.A. Ryan & MI Flynn passengers by her to St. John's

Friday, December 14

Wind S.S. W. A fine day. Soft.

Saturday, December 15

Wind South A soft day Raining after dinner.

Snow disappearing fast.

Monday, December 17

Wind North in morning. Cold & frosty and Easterly after dinner.

Tuesday, December 18

Wind S.S. West fine day, frosty evening.

Blew very strong last night and rained hard. Roads all bare now.

Plover left this morning.

Wednesday, December 19

Wind Southerly in morning and soft. Veered Westerly during day and became fine.

Plover here at 4 am this morning M Flynn came by her Had some made to land for trade.

Thursday, December 20

Wind Easterly - Snowed last night and everything is again covered with snow.

Friday, December 21

Saturday, December 22

Monday, December 31

Promised berths to the ice coming Spring 1884

Job Abbott, John Phillipott, Tom Moss or Chrley, Alex Elliott, John Wicks, Ned Dooley, Joe Bennett, Ned Sullivan, Pat Keough & Brother, Jno Driscoll, Mick Hartry, Robt Quinton Senr, Patrick Aylward, ? Aylward, Geo Brown of John, John Murphy or Mary, James Walsh, ? Dwyer, Jas Aylward, Jno Maddocks, Wm Carroll, Tom Carroll, Mic Ryan.