

Friday, January 1

Mild day. Wind Southerly. The rain, which fell early this morning, took away the last of the snow and ice and the roads and hills are quite bare now.

Saturday, January 2

Fine and cold. Wind North West, blowing hard in morning, but dropped as day advanced.

Mrs. E.C. Hiscock was buried this pm.

Sunday, January 3

Fine day, but cold and very raw. Wind Southerly, blowing strong during night.

Monday, January 4

Mild day. Wind South West, blowing strong. Raining last night and up to daylight this morning.

Tuesday, January 5

A very fine day. Wind West, light.

Our two motor boats left this morning at 8 o'clock for British Hr with Anderson's goods landed same and were back here at 1pm.

Wednesday, January 6

Wind Southerly with a raw edge to it. Snowing after dinner.

Stores closed today.

Blowing strong after tea and during the night from North.

Thursday, January 7

Fine day. Clear and cold. Wind West, light.

Hauled up motor boat this pm.

Friday, January 8

Cold day, wind North East, String with occasional snow showers during day.

Automobiles are still running to and from stations.

Not sufficient snow down yet for hauling wood.

Saturday, January 9

Cold last evening and this morning. Wind North West, light.

Our motor boat to Champney's this am with stick to make keel for "Wilson".

At 5pm wind South, snowing fast.

Sunday, January 10

Fine, cold. Wind North West, blowing strong in forenoon.

Monday, January 11

Fine day. Wind North West, blowing stiff breeze all day.

S.S. "Sagona" here from North at 12:30pm on her final trip for the season.

Men hauling firewood from 'Country" today, first time for this winter.

Tuesday, January 12

A cold raw day. Wind Southerly with a few snow flurries in afternoon.

Wednesday, January 13
Fine day. Cold. Wind West.
Hauled second motor boat today.

Thursday, January 14
Wind West, light. Cold.
It blew a gale last night from the North West and was very cold.

Friday, January 15

A very mild day. Wind South West, light. Raining after dinner.

Saturday, January 16

Cold and raw. Wind North East with scattered snow flurries.

Sunday, January 17

Cold. Wind North West blowing strong in forenoon.

Monday, January 18

Wind South. Mild. Snowing from early morning until noon when it turned and continued till 6pm.

Roads covered with ice this pm making walking very dangerous.

Tuesday, January 19

A beautifully fine day.

Wind North West, light. Very soft and warm.

Wednesday, January 20
A cold day. Wind N.N. West, blowing a gale.

Thursday, January 21
Fine, cold. Wind North West, light.

Friday, January 22

Cold. Wind North West. A few snow flurries in afternoon, some five to six inches of snow fell last night.

Saturday, January 23

A fine day. Wind West, light.

Sunday, January 24

A very cold day. Wind North West, blowing strongly.

Monday, January 25

Wind Easterly, light. Snowing little all day.

S.S. "Sagona" is at Catalina waiting change of wind to proceed North with food and supplies. It is reported that Bonavista Bay is filled with slob.

Tuesday, January 26

Fine day. Cold, wind Westerly. Light. Harbor is now frozen over but not sufficiently strong for traffic.

Wednesday, January 27

Fine. Cold. Wind West North West. Snowing and drifting at intervals during the day. Very cold at 5pm.

Thursday, January 28

A very cold day. Wind North West blowing strong for a time. Last night was the coldest for the winter. Thermometer registering 4 below at 10 o'clock.

Harbor is now frozen over. A few people crossed today.

Friday, January 29

A beautifully fine day. Cold. Wind North West, light.

Mr & Mrs E.J. Ryan came from St. John's by this morning's train.

People crossing Harbor today.

Saturday, January 30

Wind North. Fine, cold. A few snow flurries in afternoon.

Sunday, January 31

Wind North, blowing strong all day. Not so frosty as the past few days.

Monday, February 1

Wind North East. Fresh breeze with a few snow flurries.

Tuesday, February 2

Candlemas Day. This firm's office and stores closed.

Wind North East, mild. A few snow showers during day.

The Trinity Benefit Club held its 99th annual meeting today.

Wednesday, February 3
Wind North East, mild.

Thursday, February 4
A fine day. Wind North East. Cold in afternoon.

Friday, February 5

A fine day. Wind North East. Cold in afternoon and night.

Saturday, February 6

A beautifully fine day. Wind South West, very light.

Sunday, February 7

Mild. Wind South East, light. Raining after tea.

Monday, February 8

Wind North East, blowing fairly strong in afternoon with rain.

John T. Sheehan went to St. John's by this morning's train to enter hospital for observation and treatment.

From 6pm to 9pm it blew a hurricane from the North East.

Tuesday, February 9

Mild. Wind North East, light.

A troupe consisting of Mesdames Dr. Sinclair, P. Barbour, W.

Sullivan, G. Hoskins and Messrs EB Rankin, G. Hoskins, R.

Morris and RW Hayter put off a play entitled "Peg, O My Heart" here last night. Despite the storm which prevailed at the time the hall was crowded and we hear that the sum of $65.00 was realized.

Monday, February 8

Wind North East, blowing fairly strong in afternoon with rain.

John T. Sheehan went to St. John's by this morning's train to enter hospital for observation and treatment.

From 6pm to 9pm it blew a hurricane from the North East.

Tuesday, February 9

Mild. Wind North East, light.

A troupe consisting of Mesdames Dr. Sinclair, P. Barbour, W.

Sullivan, G. Hoskins and Messrs EB Rankin, G. Hoskins, R.

Morris and RW Hayter put off a play entitled "Peg, O My Heart" here last night. Despite the storm which prevailed at the time the hall was crowded and we hear that the sum of $65.00 was realized.

Friday, February 12

A fine day, but cold. Wind west, moderate breeze.

Saturday, February 13

Cold. Wind S.S. West, fair breeze. Little snow fell during day.

Sunday, February 14

A very fine day. Wind West, light.

Monday, February 15

Wind South. Strong breeze, with heavy rain in forenoon. After dinner, calm with fog for an hour or so when wind veered South West.

Tuesday, February 16

Very little wind in forenoon with snow showers. In afternoon wind South West, smart breeze.

Harbor ice started to break up and at 6pm it extended from the "Nuddic" on this side to Fifield's Point on the other side.

Wednesday, February 17

Wind North with light snow and becoming colder as day advances.

Wrote Harry Stone, Monroe, at what price he can get - 2 keel pieces each 15 feet long 8"x7 1/4" dressed and 2 or 3 pcs for a shoe 50 feet long 7 1/4" x 2" dressed.

Thursday, February 18

Wind North East, blowing strong with high drift. Stormiest day for the winter.

Jacob Wiseman died suddenly at his home in Dunfield this morning.

Friday, February 19

A very stormy day. Wind North East, blowing strong, snowing fast and drifting.

Henry Hunt died today after a long illness.

Saturday, February 20

Storm of wind North East. Snow and drift still continuing, no let up today. Piles of snow everywhere.

Sunday, February 21

Wind still North East blowing strong with snow and high drift.

Friday, February 19

A very stormy day. Wind North East, blowing strong, snowing fast and drifting.

Henry Hunt died today after a long illness.

Saturday, February 20

Storm of wind North East. Snow and drift still continuing, no let up today. Piles of snow everywhere.

Sunday, February 21

Wind still North East blowing strong with snow and high drift.

Wednesday, February 24

Soft and mild. Wind North East, light.

Train arrived at Clarendville early this pm and will be leaving tonight with mail and passengers for this Branch.

Thursday, February 25

Wind South. Cold and raw.

Train from Clarendville early this morning.

Harbor filling with loose ice.

Snowing at 6pm.

Friday, February 26

Fine day. Calm.

Harbor packed with drift ice.

Train passed up last night and left Clarendville at 2 o'clock this evening for this Branch and arrived back here at 8pm with mails.

Saturday, February 27

Fine day. Wind South West, light increasing as day advanced and at 6pm it was blowing a fair breeze and becoming cold.

Sunday, February 28

Wind West, light and fine.

Monday, March 1

Wind West, light, fine.

About thirty sealers left here by this morning's train for St. John's to join their ships for the seal fishery.

Tuesday, March 2

Fine day. Wind South West, fair breeze.

Harbor ice broke into Tavemor's Point this pm.

George DeGrishe who would have been 88 years of age had he lived until March 17th died this morning.

Monday, March 1

Wind West, light, fine.

About thirty sealers left here by this morning's train for St. John's to join their ships for the seal fishery.

Tuesday, March 2

Fine day. Wind South West, fair breeze.

Harbor ice broke into Tavemor's Point this pm.

George DeGrishe who would have been 88 years of age had he lived until March 17th died this morning.

Friday, March 5

Wind South East. Commenced snowing at noon.

Mr. John T. Sheehan returned from St. John's by this morning's train.

Saturday, March 6

Fine. Mild in morning but becoming colder as day advanced.

Wind South West, blowing strong.

7 steamers left St. John's at 8 o'clock this morning for the seal fishery.

At 6pm wind West, blowing strong with snow flurries.

Sunday, March 7

A stormy day. Wind veered South East about 2pm and blew strong with snow and high drift until 6pm when it moderated and veered South West and blew a gale for a couple of hours.

Monday, March 8

Fine day, cold. Wind South West blowing smart breeze with snow flurries.

The sealing steamers according today's report are strung along between Baccalieu and the Funks.

Train which left Bonavista this am and due here at 10 oclock arrived at Catalina at 1pm and will remain there all night.

Tuesday, March 9

Calm until 2pm when there was a light breeze from South East which increased as evening advanced and at 5pm it blew strong with snow and drift. After tea, wind veered Southerly accompanied by sleet and rain.

Train left Bonavista at noon and got to the station here at 5pm.

Wednesday, March 10

Mild. Wind South East, very light.

Train which passed through here last evening had not reached Princeton at 5pm.

Mr. W.N. White confined to his home today with a very bad attack of Eczema on his face.

Thursday, March 11

Fine day. Wind West, light in forenoon.

Train reached Clarendville at noon today and will be leaving there tonight or tomorrow morning with mails and passengers.

Blowing a bit stronger in evening and getting colder.

A public meeting was held in the Court House last night for the purpose of making arrangements to celebrate the Coronation of their Majesties King George VI and Queen Elizabeth which event takes place in London on May 12th.

Friday, March 12

Soft and mild. Wind North West, light.

Sealing steamers all jammed in vicinity of Belle Isle, no sign of any seals.

Train reached here from Clarenville at 3pm with mails. Our last mail from St. John's was on Friday the 5th.

Saturday, March 13

Calm and mild.

Train which left here at 3 o'clock last evening has not reached Bonavista at noon today.

Nothing new from sealers.

Train arrived at Bonavista during evening.

Sunday, March 14

A fine day. Wind North East, light. Radio news last night reported sealing steamers 10 to 25 miles E.N.E. of Belle Isle searching for seals.

Monday, March 15

A beautifully fine day. Wind South West, light.

Train passed up at 11am.

Tuesday, March 16

Wind South, light, fine, warm.

Mr & Mrs E.J. Ryan went to Bonavista by this morning's train.

Telegraph Office has following today from the sealers;

"Ranger reported last night now four thousand on board. Ships on front have done nothing as yet. Ice very heavy and all except "Beothic" jammed. "Imogene" and "Eagle" reported good patch in vicinity of Double Island (Battle Harbor) but nothing can be done without heavy West wind and swell."

Motor yacht "Cinderella" here from Smiths Sound this forenoon with a patient for Doctor Sinclair.

Wednesday, March 17

General Holiday. Offices and stores closed.

Wind South East, raining all day.

Thursday, March 18

Calm and fine. Mild.

"Imogene" and "Eagle" struck a patch of seals yesterday, former killed and panned 4000 and the latter 1500.

Friday, March 19

Calm. Snowing from noon until 3pm when it turned to rain and from then until nightfall there was a regular downpour.

Excepting "Imogene" and "Eagle" none of the sealing steamers had reached the seals up to 8 o'clock last night.

Saturday, March 20

Fine day. Wind South West, fresh breeze.

Good news expected from the sealers tonight.

Sunday, March 21

A very fine day, little or no wind.

Monday, March 22

A cold raw day. Wind South.

Mr & Mrs E.J. Ryan returned from Bonavista and Mr W.N. White went to St. John's by this morning's train.

Telegraph Office reports today that all ships are in the seals and that S.S. "Imogene" had 28,000 of which 14,000 was onboard.

Snowing fast at 5pm.

Tuesday, March 23

Wind North East. Snowing fast till 3pm when it cleared and wind veered Northerly.

Wednesday, March 24

Wind West with snow flurries in forenoon.

William Power aged 90 years of Port Rexton was buried in the R.C. Cemetery here this afternoon.

Thursday, March 25

Dull. Wind South West.

Friday, March 26

Good Friday. All stores, offices closed.

Calm, dull.

Sealing steamers are now in Straits of Belle Isle searching for seals. The small patch which they located off Battle Harbor being cut. The estimated catch is about sixty thousand to date.

Saturday, March 27

No wind of any account.

Sunday, March 28

A beautifully fine day. Very little wind from any direction.

Monday, March 29

Wind South East. Light, soft.

Nothing new from sealing steamers since last report. "Ungava" and "Neptune" are in vicinity of Groais Islands. "Imogene", "Eagle", "Terra Nova" and "Beothic" are in Straits of Belle Isle.

Tuesday, March 30

Fine and very warm until 3pm when wind veered North East.

There was about one foot of snow fell last night.

The body of Raymond White, son of Mr & Mrs Wm White who died in Northern Ontario came by this morning's train. The funeral will take place tomorrow evening.

Wednesday, March 31

Wind North North East. Soft.

The funeral of the late Raymond White took place this afternoon.

Thursday, April 1

Wind North East, light.

Nothing very startling happening.

Friday, April 2

Cold and raw. Wind North East, blowing fairly strong.

Saturday, April 3

Wind North North East, blowing strong.

An American and Canadian mail received this afternoon.

Sealing steamers have done nothing past few days.

Sunday, April 4

A very cold day. Wind North East, blowing strong.

Monday, April 5

Wind still North East and blowing strong.

S.S. "Imogene" is now ten miles S.W. of Cabot Island in a good patch of old seals.

Mr EJ Ryan went to St. John's by this morning's train.

Tuesday, April 6

Fine day. Warm. The North East wind which was prevailed for the past week was dropping all day and at 6pm it was quite calm, with indications of rain.

S.S. "Ranger" which was operating in the Gulf, arrived in St. John's this morning hailing for 13,000 seals.

Wednesday, April 7

Wind Southerly, blowing fairly strong for a while with light rain in morning.

Telegraph Office reports today that price for young Harps and Hoods has been fixed at $5.00 per coat. This is an increase of $1.25 over last year's price.

Calm at 6pm with fog alarm 'going'.

Thursday, April 8

Wind West, blowing strong.

Friday, April 9

A fine day. Wind North West, blowing strong.
"Ranger's" crew made $49.67 each.

Saturday, April 10

Wind South East. Raining after dinner.

Sunday, April 11

Cold. Wind North West blowing strong with snow flurries during day.

Monday, April 12

Dull. Wind Northerly.

S.S. "Imogene" arrived at St. John's on Saturday evening hailing for 41,000 seals.

S.S. "Ungava" and S.S. "Neptune" arrived at St. John's, via Wesleyville this morning.

Schnr "A&C Brown", Henry Ballott, Master, arrived here from St. John's yesterday morning with freight for Sundry parties.

Tuesday, April 13

Fine day. Wind S.S. West. Light.

Wednesday, April 14

A beautifully fine day - warm. Wind South West.

Hannah Hayter of our shop staff who has been sick since March 4th was out today for the first time.

Thursday, April 15

Wind South, moderate breeze. Raining in forenoon.

Friday, April 16

Wind Southerly, light with some fog in forenoon.

S.S. "Terra Nova" which had been jammed in Straits of Belle Isle got clear yesterday and is now coming South. The other two ships "Beothic" and "Eagle" are off Cape Bonavista. There are only three ships out now - the three mentioned above.

Saturday, April 17

A beautifully fine day. Wind North West, fresh breeze.

Sunday, April 18

Dull. Wind Southerly, light with snow showers in afternoon and night.

Monday, April 19

Calm and dull. West snow falling in afternoon.

"Ungava's" crew shared $6.28

"Neptune's" crew shared $18.32

"Imogene's" crew shared $127.58

Tuesday, April 20

Dull and foggy with a few scattered snow showers during day.

Mr EJ Ryan returned from St. John's by this morning's train.

Wednesday, April 21
Raw and cold. Wind Southerly.

Thursday, April 22
Wind North East, dull.
Rev. W. Murphy P.P. of King's Cove here this am from Catalina by train.

Friday, April 23
Fine. Wind North East, fresh breeze.

Saturday, April 24
A cold day. Wind North East, blowing strong.
S.S. "Terra Nova" one of the three ships now at the seal fishery secured 3,000 seals yesterday.

Sunday, April 25
Wind North East. Good breeze.

Monday, April 26

Wind North East, blowing strong.

Hannah Hayter at work this am after being sick since March 4th.

Bay full of ice.

Tuesday, April 27

Blowing strong from the North East until 3pm when it dropped and at 6pm it was nearly calm.

Brought Schooner "Saffron" down from Tom Jones' Cove this am.

Wednesday, April 28

Fine and warm. Wind South West until about 3pm when it veered East North East.

Painting "Saffron" around today.

"Terra Nova" secured 1,000 seals yesterday.

Thursday, April 29

Cold. Wind North East.

Bay filling with ice.

Bending sails and doing Sundry jobs on "Saffron" today.

"Terra Nova" secured 400 seals yesterday.

Friday, April 30

Fine but cold. Wind North blowing strong.

Mr & Mrs W.N. White returned from St. John's this morning.

S.S. "Terra Nova" arrived at St. John's last evening hailing for the weight of 24,000 seals.

Saturday, May 1

Wind North East, fine.

Ice close to Horse Chops.

Sunday, May 2

A very fine day. Wind South West. A bit warm in afternoon.

Monday, May 3

Fine. Wind South West with dense fog all day.

Tuesday, May 4

Dull, wind North East till about 4pm after that South West, light.

Wednesday, May 5

Wind South East, light fine.

Brought "Hunter" from Tom Jones' Cove today.

"Eagle's" crew shared $66.00

"Beothic's" crew shared $35.00.

Thursday, May 6

Fine. Warm wind South West blowing strong.

Friday, May 7

Fine. Wind North shifting to South West after dinner.

Three Schooners anchored here this pm en route to St. John's.

Saturday, May 8

Wind South West, light, fine.

"Saffron" ready for St. John's and will sail as soon as wind and weather permits.

"Terra Nova's" crew arrived from St. John's by train this afternoon. They shared $66.92 with a promise of a bonus later.

S.S. "Sagona" here from St. John's at 5pm on her first trip for the season.

Sunday, May 9

Fine. Wind South West.

Monday, May 10

Fine, warm. Wind North West dropping after dinner and at 6pm it was calm.

Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan hence to St. John's by this morning's train.

"Saffron" hailed off from wharf this pm.

The Schooners which anchored here on Friday the 7th and left for St. John's the next day, returned again that night and are still here.

Tuesday, May 11

Fine. Wind South West after breakfast with fog.

"Saffron" sailed at 7am for Harbor Grace but returned at 10 o'clock owing to head wind and fog.

Some Schooners which were harbored here also sailed for St. John's.

Wednesday, May 12

Fine. Wind South with dense fog all day.

Fine. Wind South West.

Today is a Public Holiday - King George VI and Queen Elizabeth are being crowned in London. This place celebrated the event by several functions all of which were successfully carried out. The proceedings started with a parade headed by the school children around the town and which terminated at the Parish Hall where addresses were given by Rev. H. Torrville, Messrs Wm White and SJ Hefferton. The children were then marched to Hall and were treated to tea, cake etc. after which each child was presented with a mug and a bag of candy. In the afternoon all the people assembled in the Hall to listen to the King's speech over the radio which was heard quite distinctly as well as speeches from all the Premiers of the Empire. A few houses were illuminated and a huge Bonfire was lighted during the night. The whole affair ended with a dance which was attended by a goodly number of citizens.

Thursday, May 13

Wind South in morning with dense fog.

"Saffron" sailed early this morning for St. John's - calling at Harbor Grace for docking.

Schooner " J.G. Bailey" - Wilson Vey, Master, here from St. John's at 6pm with some flour, gasoline etc. for this trade.

Friday, May 14

From 4am till 6pm wind North East blowing strong. Previous to 11am wind was Southerly very light.

Schooner "J.G. Bailey" discharged flour etc. before breakfast and left immediately for Port Rexton.

"Saffron" arrived at Harbor Grace this pm.

Saturday, May 15

Fine day. Wind South East, cold.

Walter Goldsworthy brought Schooner "Wilson" here this am.

Sunday, May 16

Wind Southerly, blowing strong.

S.S. "Sagona" here from North at 11am.

Monday, May 17
Dull and foggy. Wind Southerly.

Tuesday, May 18
Raining hard from early morning until noon, when it somewhat cleared off. After dinner wind Southerly with fog outside.

Wednesday, May 19

Fine day, Wind South West.

S.S. "Northern Ranger" here at 5am from St. John's owing to the dense fog which prevailed at the time ship anchored in the offing about 11:30 last night and remained there till this morning.

Thursday, May 20

Fine. Wind South, light.

S.S. "Sagona" here at 5pm bound North.

Friday, May 21

Calm with thick fog best part of day.

Hove out Schooner "Wilson" this am to try to locate a leak somewhere in her bottom.

Saturday, May 22

Wind Southerly. Light, foggy.

Sunday, May 23

Foggy. Wind South, light.

Monday, May 24

Wind Southerly with some fog.

Hove out "Wilson" on other side today.

About 800 lbs salmon got at Dunfield this morning.

Tuesday, May 25

Dull. Wind South East, light.

Put both spars in "Hunter" this pm.

Salmon still plentiful - 1000 to 1200 lbs being netted at Dunfield and Trouty today.

Wednesday, May 26
Fine. Wind South, light.
S.S. "Sagona" here at 9:30am bound South.
Putting lumber aboard "Wilson" today.

Thursday, May 27
Wind South West, light. Fine.
Finished loading "Wilson" this am.

Friday, May 28

Wind Southerly, light.

S.S. "Sagona" here at 4:30pm from St. John's.

"Wilson" by wharf ready for St. John's.

"Saffron" at St. John's ready to sail for here with a full load of provisions etc.

Saturday, May 29

Raining all day. Wind South East.

"Saffron" arrived from St. John's at noon with a full general cargo.

Wm Sullivan in service this am.

Sunday, May 30

Fine. Wind West. Smart breeze.

Several Schooners which had harbored here, left this morning for St. John's.

Monday, May 31

Fairly fine. Wind South West.

"Saffron" by wharf discharging.

"Wilson" left at 1pm for St. John's.

Elijah Price and crew here at 3pm to take charge of "Saffron"

Capt. E. Blackwood bound to Cape Onion put in here last evening and left again this morning.

George R. Lilly, grandson of the Late G.R. Lilly, Magistrate here at one time, took charge of Customs Office here today.

Tuesday, June 1

Wind North East, light.

"Wilson" arrived at St. John's at 7am.

Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan here from St. John's by this morning's train.

"Saffron" sailed at noon for St. John's. Wind then South West.

Raining at 6pm.

Walter Goldsworthy and crew doing up "Hunter" today.

Schooner "Dauntless" coal laden arrived here from North

Sydney at 8 oclock last night, consigned to this firm. "Dauntless" commenced discharging

Wednesday, June 2

Fine day. Wind Southerly, light. The rain which started at 6 o'clock last evening developed into a heavy downpour accompanied by thunder and lightning and lasted up to nearly midnight (last night).

"Dauntless" landed 852 tubs coal today.

"Saffron" arrived at St. John's at 8am.

Little rain between 5 and 6pm. The lightning which prevailed here last night was the heaviest seen for a number of years.

Thursday, June 3

A fine day. Wind North East.

Wm Sullivan hence to St. John's by this morning's train.

"dauntless" finished discharging at 3pm.

Walter Goldsworthy and crew 'doing up' "Hunter".

Towed "Dauntless" to South West Arm this afternoon for ballasting.

Friday, June 4

Dull. Wind Southerly, light.

"Dauntless" ballasted and returned to anchorage at 5pm.

Walter Goldsworthy & crew finished painting "Hunter" this pm.

Saturday, June 5

Cold and raw. Wind South with some rain in forenoon.

Sunday, June 6

Raining all day. Wind South East.

Mr EJ Ryan went to Bonavista by this evening's train.

Monday, June 7

Calm. Raining until 2pm when it cleared up.

"Dauntless" sailed at 6pm. Wind then South West.

Tuesday, June 8

Fine day. Wind South West, light in morning but blowing a fair breeze in afternoon.

"Saffron" arrived from St. John's at 5am with a load of salt and goods.

S.S. "Kyle" here at 3pm bound Labrador on her first trip for the season.

"Saffron's" crew outfitted today and will leave for their homes tomorrow morning where they will spend a couple of days before going to Labrador.

Mr EJ Ryan returned from Bonavista by this evening's train.

Wednesday, June 9

A very warm day. Wind South West.

S.S. "Sagona" here at 9:30 last night bound St. John's. "Sagona" remained in port all night owing to fog.

"Saffron's" crew went home in motor boat this morning.

Walter Goldsworthy and crew bending sails on "Hunter".

Thursday, June 10

Wind North, light veering to South West during forenoon.

Loading "Saffron" for Labrador.

Friday, June 11
Fine, warm. Wind South West.
S.S. "Sagona" here from St. John's at 5pm.

Saturday, June 12
Wind South, light with some fog.

Sunday, June 13
A beautifully fine day. Wind South West.

Monday, June 14

Fine, warm. Wind S.

"H.F. Wilson" here from St. John's at 6:30 last evening with salt.

"Hunter" took 100 Hhds salt from "Wilson" and supplies for fishery and left for home at 5:30pm.

"Saffron's" crew here from Random at 6pm.

Thomas Sullivan here from King's Cove this pm to join "Saffron" for Labrador.

Tuesday, June 15

Wind South West, blowing fairly strong. Fine in morning.

"Wilson" left at 11am for British Hr and Pope's Harbor to load lumber.

"Saffron" cast off from wharf at 10am to sail for Batteau Labrador, but owing to windlass trouble she did not get away until 1pm.

Raining a little at 5pm.

S.S. "Sagona" here from North at 9am.

Thomas Sullivan went to Batteau by "Saffron".

Wednesday, June 16

Fine. Wind South, light with fog.

Wm Sullivan went to British Harbor in motor boat this am to assist loading "Wilson".

Louis and Albert Fowlow sailed today for Labrador.

The first of the Random Schooners (Bishop) here last night en route to Labrador.

Thursday, June 17

Wind South West, light. Fine.

Walter Goldsworthy sailed from Champney's this morning for the fishery.

Friday, June 18

Wind South to South East. Light.

S.S. "Kyle" here at 11am bound to Labrador.

S.S. "Sagona" here from St. John's at 4:30pm.

Saturday, June 19

Dull. Wind South East, light.

S.S. "Silver City" here at 9am en route to Labrador.

"Wilson" left British Harbor at 2pm for St. John's with a load of lumber.

Wm Sullivan here from British Harbor in motor boat at 4pm.

Raining in evening.

Sunday, June 20

Dull. Wind North East, blowing fairly strong till 4pm.

Monday, June 21

Wind Southerly, light.

"Wilson" arrived at St. John's yesterday.

Tuesday, June 22

Fine. Wind South, light. Foggy.

"Sagona" here from North at 1pm.

Several Random Schooners which came here last night, left today for Labrador.

Hazel Fowlow of Rd. (first year in charge) sailed this pm for the fishery.

"Saffron" arrived at Batteau today reports sign of codfish in nets and no traps out.

Wednesday, June 23

Dull. Wind Southerly.

Kenneth Fowlow sailed this morning for Labrador.

Caplin plentiful this morning.

Thursday, June 24

Calm and foggy with occasional showers during day.

Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan went to Bonavista by last evenings train.

Friday, June 25

Wind light and variable. Raining in afternoon.

S.S. "Sagona" here at 5pm from St. John's.

Wm Sullivan went to St. John's by tonight's train.

Saturday, June 26

Raining from early morning till 8 o'clock. Wind Southerly, light.

Very warm after dinner.

Sunday, June 27

A very warm day. Wind Southerly, light.

Monday, June 28

Wind Southerly, light with fog for a while. Very warm.
Following telegram received from Batteau this am;
"Good sign fish, five to fifteen barrels trap Saturday evening, plenty caplin off" Signed Sullivan.

Tuesday, June 29

Calm and foggy and very warm.
S.S. "Sagona" here at 3pm bound South.

Wednesday, June 30

Dull. No wind, very sultry.

S.S. "Kyle" is advertised to sail from St. John's at 8 o'clock tonight for Labrador.

Thursday, July 1

Foggy. Wind South South East, light. Raining at intervals during day.

S.S. "Kyle" here at noon bound to Labrador.

J.T. Sheehan went to Bateau by "Kyle"

Friday, July 2

Dull in morning. Wind Southerly, light. Fine in afternoon, wind South West blowing fairly strong.

S.S. "Sagona" here at 4:45pm from St. John's.

Saturday, July 3

Foggy in forenoon, wind Southerly.

S.S. "Silver City" here at 11am bound to Labrador. Ship remained in port till 3pm waiting for some men from Champney's and English Harbor.

Wind South West and fine in afternoon.

"Wilson" which arrived at St. John's on June 20th with a cargo of lumber expected to finish discharging at noon today.

Sunday, July 4

A very warm day. Little or no wind.

Monday, July 5

Wind South West, fair breeze. Very warm again today.

Tuesday, July 6

Fine, warm. Wind South West.

Schnr "H.F. Wilson" arrived from St. John's at 8am.

S.S. "Sagona" here from North at 9:30am.

Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan went to St. John's by "Sagona".

"Wilson" discharged hauled to coal wharf and took on board 150 tubs coal.

Following telegram received from Batteau this pm;

"Saffron Dysons Johnson Coveyduck hundred

Coles Keefe Neville Newell sixty - nothing hooked prospects fair."

Wednesday, July 7

Wind South light, thick fog all day. Raining hard in afternoon.

"Wilson" finished taking aboard coal at 5pm and hauled off in stream ready for King's Cove.

At 6pm wind South East.

Thursday, July 8

Dull and sultry. Wind North East, light.

"Wilson" sailed at 7am for King's Cove.

Friday, July 9

Dull, sultry. Wind South, light.

For about an hour after dinner, there was a heavy downpour of rain accompanied by thunder and lightning.

"Sagona" here from St. John's at 4:30pm.

"Wilson" commenced discharging at King's Cove at 9 o'clock this morning.

A.L. Goldsworthy of the shop staff went to St. John's by tonight's train for a holiday.

Saturday, July 10

Light shifting winds, warm and sultry. A few heavy showers in evening with thunder and lightning.

Sunday, July 11

Wind North, blowing fairly strong.

"Wilson" here from King's Cove at 9am.

Monday, July 12

Fine day. Wind North, fresh breeze.

S.S. "Kyle" here from Labrador at 8 o'clock last evening.

"Wilson" sailed at 11:30am for Little Harbor.

Tuesday, July 13

Wind Southerly. Light, fine.

"Sagona" here from North at 11:30am.

Wednesday, July 14
Very warm, Wind North light.

Thursday, July 15
Dull. Wind Southerly, light.
Schooner "Arginia" arrived this am with a cargo coal consigned to Morris.

Friday, July 16

Wind Southerly. Dull, sultry.

"Wilson" here from Little harbor at 4pm with lumber and sticks.

"Sagona" from St. John's at 4:30pm.

Saturday, July 17

Very little wind and very warm.

S.S. "Kyle" here at 1:30am bound to Labrador. Owing to fog, ship remained in port until 5am.

"Wilson" landing rails, sticks, etc.

Sunday, July 18

Dull and sultry. No wind.

Monday, July 19

Wind North East, fresh breeze. Dull.

Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan returned from St. John's by last night's train.

"Wilson" being made ready for St. John's.

Tuesday, July 20

Wind this morning from East, light, veered to S.S. West about noon and became nice and fine.

"Wilson" sailed at 1:30pm for St. John's with mixed cargo of 1/2 & 3/4 inch board, old anchors & chains, scrap iron and steel drums.

S.S. "Sagona" here from North at 12:30pm. Our Mr. W.E. McGrath (book-keeper) took passage by her for St. John's. Dr and Mrs.

Sinclair of here and Dr. Fitzgerald of Trinity East also went to St. John's by this boat.

Wednesday, July 21

Wind South this morning- light. Nice fine day. By noon wind had worked around to South West. Nice, fresh breeze.

Thursday, July 22

Wind South West. Light in forenoon but nice breeze in afternoon.

Fine day, warm.

Following message received from John T. Sheehan today-

'Hunter" Belle Isle 300, lost trap, have rim ready ship Kyle, particulars Kyle, trapping slacked."

Friday, July 23

Nice, fine day and warm. Wind about South all day - light.
No fish to be trapped or caught with hook and line but boats trawling out in Bay are doing fairly well.

S.S. "sagona" here from St. John's at 5:30pm.

Saturday, July 24

Light South wind all day. Dull in early morning, but turned out a fairly fine day.

Constable Trickett left here last evening by motor car for Plate Cove, having received a wire to the effect that a forest fire was in progress near that settlement.

Sunday, July 25

Wind South West, a fine breeze. Became very warm in afternoon.

Monday, July 26

Wind South West - light. A very warm day.

W.E. McGrath returned from St. John's by last evening's train.

Tuesday, July 27

Wind South West, a good breeze - warm day.

"Sagona" here from North at 11am. Mr & Mrs E.J. Ryan took passage by her for St. John's/

Took our first dry codfish today - some 3 qtls, a poor quality - from George Pearce, Trouty.

Wednesday, July 28

Wind South, light. Dull with little fog.

S.S. "Kyle" here from Labrador ay 6am.

C. of E. Garden Party taking place this afternoon - all stores closing at 2pm.

Thursday, July 29

Dull day and cold. Wind North East. Light showers in forenoon.

Friday, July 30
Fine. Wind South West, good breeze.
S.S. "Sagona" in from St. John's at 4:30pm.

Saturday, July 31
Wind South West. Fine warm.
Schooner "H.F. Wilson" arrived from St. John's at 10pm with salt and store goods.

Sunday, August 1
Fine, warm. Wind South West.

Monday, August 2

Wind South West - fine and very warm.

"Wilson" landed all store goods, hauled to salt wharf and took on board 100 Hhds salt for Batteau.

Tuesday, August 3

Dull. Wind, Southerly light.

"Wilson" finished loading at 2:30pm and vessel sailed at 3:30pm for Batteau. Wind then South, light.

A few light showers after dinner.

"Sagona" here at 10am en route to St. John's.

Wednesday, August 4

A very warm day - Wind South, light.

S.S. "Kyle" here at 2:30a, bound to Labrador.

"Wilson" harbored at Port Rexton last night.

Thursday, August 5

A warm sultry day, no wind.

Friday, August 6

Dull. Wind South, light. A few very light showers during day.
S.S. "Sagona" here from St. John's at 4:45pm.

Saturday, August 7

A very warm day. Hottest day for season. Wind N.N. West good breeze for a while.

Sunday, August 8

Little or no wind. Very warm.

Monday, August 9

Wind South West. Fine and very warm.

Tuesday, August 10

A very hot day. No wind. Foggy in forenoon.

S.S. "Sagona" here from North at 3pm.

"Wilson" arrived at Batteau this am all well.

Wednesday, August 11

Wind North East. Good breeze, cool today.

Thursday, August 12

An exceedingly warm day. Wind West.

In the afternoon, place became filled with smoke from a forest fire which is raging West of Clarenville.

Friday, August 13

Dull. Wind South West. Good breeze. There was a heavy shower of rain at 10am but it did not last very long. In afternoon fine and very warm.

Saturday, August 14

A warm day. Wind South West.

S.S. "Kyle" arrived at Hawk's Harbor at 11am coming South.

Sunday, August 15

Fine and warm. Wind South West, light.

S.S. "Kyle" here from Labrador at 8:30pm.

Monday, August 16

Very warm again today, wind South West, light.

Tuesday, August 17

Fine. Warm wind S.S. West blowing strong.

"Sagona" here at 3pm bound South.

Wednesday, August 18

Fine and warm in forenoon. Wind Southerly, light. In afternoon, raining from 1:30pm to 5pm when it cleared up and became nice and fine.

"Wilson" loaded with salt bulk codfish at bateau ready to sail for home.

Thursday, August 19

A beautifully fine day. Wind North from early morning until 3pm when it veered South West.

Friday, August 20

Wind Southerly, blowing strong. Raining practically all day.

"Sagina" in port at 4:30pm from St. John's.

"Kyle" left St. John's at 10am for Labrador.

Saturday, August 21

Wind Southerly, fine in forenoon. Foggy in afternoon.

S.S. "Kyle" here at 2am bound to Labrador.

Sunday, August 22

Warm and sultry in forenoon. About 6pm blowing strong from the North. Cool.

Monday, August 23

A beautifully fine day. Wind North West veering to South West after dinner and blowing strong.

Kenneth Fowlow arrived from Labrador last evening (8 o'clock) with a full load of codfish.

Tuesday, August 24

Fine. Wind South, light.

"Sagona" here from North at 1pm.

"Wilson" arrived from Batteau at 4pm with a full load of wet salted Labrador codfish.

Wednesday, August 25

Fine. Wind North light.

Landed 60 drafts fish ex "Wilson" and carried same to East side for making.

Thursday, August 26

Wind Southerly. Very light. A few showers in evening. Landed 116 drafts from "Wilson" today.

Friday, August 27

Dull. Wind Southerly, light with some fog.

"Wilson" left for Champney's at 7:30am to put out some fish for making .

Fine in afternoon.

"Sagona" in port from St. John's at 5pm.

Saturday, August 28

Sultry. Wind South West , light. At 5pm wind North blowing strong for a while with a heavy downpour of rain.

"Wilson" returned from Champney's at 7pm.

Sunday, August 29

Fine, warm. Wind South West.

Monday, August 30

Dull. Wind light and variable.

"Wilson" finished discharging at 1pm 77 drafts which was stored.

Tuesday, August 31

Wind South East, light. Raining in forenoon but it cleared off about 1pm and was fine for remainder of day.

"Sagona" here from North at 8pm.

A public meeting was held in the Court House last night to draw up a programme for the reception of the Governor who intends visiting here on the 6th prox.

Wednesday, September 1

Fine day. Wind South West, blowing strong.

Wm Hayter who is making 100 drafts Labrador codfish ex "Wilson" had some of it spread today. Hayter is washing and making this fish on our wharves and flake.

S.S. "Kyle" here from Labrador at 8pm. Ship was to be decked with bunting in honor of Commissioner for public utilities - Sir Wilfred Wood - who was onboard.

Thursday, September 2

Wind North West, light, fine.

"Wilson" sailed for bateau at 4:30pm. Wind was then Southerly, very light.

Friday, September 3

Warm and sultry. Wind Southerly, very light.

"Sagona" here from St. John's at 5pm.

Arranged this pm with E.C. Brown, King's Cove for hire of Twine Store there for another term ending June 30, 1938 for thirty dollars ($30.00)

Saturday, September 4

Wind South West blowing strong. Very warm and sultry this pm.

Sunday, September 5

Raining in morning and up to 3pm when it cleared off. Wind North East, light.

Monday, September 6

Fine day. Wind North, light.

S.S. "Kyle" here from St. John's at 3:30pm yesterday bound to Labrador.

Louis and Albert Fowlow arrived from Labrador yesterday. The former about noon and the latter at 11pm. Both have full loads.

Tuesday, September 7

A beautifully fine day - Wind South West.

His Excellency the Governor Sir Humphrey Walwyn who arrived here last night in HMS "Dundee" landed at 10 o'clock this morning. He was met by a committee of citizens and escorted to the Parish Hall, where he was presented with an address to which his Excellency made a suitable reply. In the course of his remarks he referred to the fisheries, condition of the Country etc. and expressed the wish that better times were near - The singing of the National Anthem brought this part of the proceedings to a close. His Excellency and party then visited the stores of Morris and Ryan Brothers and then saw the Churches after which he was entertained at luncheon at the home of Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan. From here he drove by automobile to Trinity East where he went onboard Captain Albert Fowlow's Schooner who was just home from Labrador with a full load of fish. He then embarked on his ship and left for Catalina at 1:20pm. While the Governor was at Luncheon and Trinity East the ship was thrown over to the Public and quite a number availed of the offer and inspected the ship from Keel to ?

Wednesday, September 8

Wind South West, blowing strong. Fine.

Brought 38 Qtls of "Wilson's" cargo from Trinity East this am.

Blowing to hard to bring over any more.

"Sagona" in port at 10am bound to St. John's.

"Wilson" arrived at St. Anthony this evening.

Walter Goldsworthy Schooner "Hunter" at Seldom today.

Thursday, September 9

Wind North East. Raining from early morning until 3pm when it cleared off and wind shifted more Northerly and blew strong.

Friday, September 10

A fine day, wind West blowing strong.

Brought 125 Qtls Labrador fish from Trinity East today.

"Sagona" from St. John's at 5pm.

Saturday, September 11

Wind Southerly, fine and warm.

Our two motor boats went to Champney's at 10 o'clock this morning and returned at 2pm with 86 Qtls Labrador fish.

Walter Goldsworthy arrived at Champney's from the fishery this pm.

"Wilson" left St. Anthony this am for Batteau.

Sunday, September 12

Dull, wind South. Raining during afternoon and night.

Monday, September 13

Dull, sultry wind Southerly.

Packed 168 Qts Labrador codfish in 2 Stl Brls, this pm.

Tuesday, September 14

Wind Southerly, light. Warm and sultry.

Brought 120 Qts Labrador codfish from Champney's today and packed 120 Qts in 2 Qtl Brls.

Wednesday, September 15

Wind South West, blowing strong. Very warm and sultry.

Packing Labrador fish all day and now have 250 -2 Qtl Brls ready for shipment.

S.S. "Sagona" here at 2am bound to St. John's.

Thursday, September 16

A very warm day, wind South West.

Boats left for Champney's this am but returned shortly afterwards thought too much "lop" to bring up any fish.

Boys are swimming daily and report water as being very warm.

"Wilson" arrived at Batteau today. All well.

Friday, September 17

Fine. Very warm and sultry. Wind S.S. West light.
Brought 2 loads, 108 Q'ts fish from Champney's today.
"Sagona" here from St. John's at 5pm.

Saturday, September 18

Dull and foggy - no wind.
Brought Schooner "Hunter" from Champney's this pm.

Sunday, September 19

Wind North East, fair breeze.

Monday, September 20

Fine morning, wind South.

Loaded "Hunter" this am for St. John's with 250 - 2 Qtl Brls

Labrador codfish. This fish is intended for shipment to Liverpool by S.S. "Nova Scotia" sailing on the 24th inst.

After dinner wind S.S. West blowing hard with heavy rain. Wind dropped after tea and at 10pm it was almost calm.

Tuesday, September 21

Fine day. Wind South West blowing very strong from 9am till 6pm when it moderated little.

"Hunter" in steam waiting for wind to drop.

S.S. "Kyle" here from Labrador at 5pm.

Wednesday, September 22

Fine. Wind N.N. East light.

Schooner "Hunter" left for St. John's at 11 o'clock last night. Wind in Harbor then appeared to be West.

S.S. "Sagona" here at 2am bound to St. John's. Ship's officer reported wind then W by S. Smart breeze with a big 'lumper'.

Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan went to St. John's by "Sagona".

Brought last of "Wilson's" fish, 45 Qtls from Champney's today.

Thursday, September 23

A beautifully fine day, wind South West.

Had our shore fish spread today.

Friday, September 24
A very warm day. Wind West, light.
S.S. "Sagona" here at 5pm bound North.

Saturday, September 25
Fine, warm wind South West, light.
Boys are still swimming daily.

Sunday, September 26
Little or no wind. Raining during day and evening.

Monday, September 27

Fine. Wind South West blowing a bit strong.

S.S. "Kyle" here at 2 oclock yesterday morning bound to Labrador.

"Hunter" arrived from St. John's at 4 oclock yesterday morning.

Walter Goldsworthy came from Champney's this pm and sailed "Hunter" down to load his Labrador fish.

Tuesday, September 28

Wind North, fine.

Packed 56 - 2 Qtl Brls, Labrador fish this pm.

At 5pm wind Southerly, cold & raw.

"Wilson" sailed from Batteau today with 1100 Qtls dry Labrador codfish.

Wednesday, September 29

Dull, wind Southerly, light. Raining from 10am and continuing all day.

"Sagona" arrived from North at 3:30pm.

Schooners "Saffron" and "Vicker's Vimy" sailed from Batteau today with 1800 Qtls and 400 Qtls Labrador codfish respectively.

Thursday, September 30

Wind this morning South East, light. It blew a gale before daylight with very heavy rain. After dinner wind North, blowing strong.

Friday, October 1

Fine day. Wind North West, fresh breeze.

Walter Goldsworthy in Schooner "Hunter" here at 11am with his voyage of Labrador codfish, hauled to wharf and commenced discharging and at 6pm had 333 Qtls landed and stored.

Saturday, October 2

Wind North East, blowing strong. Raining until 2pm when it turned to snow which continued all the evening.

Packed Labrador fish today.

S.S. "Sagona" here from St. John's at 5pm and remained in port all night.

Sunday, October 3

A cold raw day, wind North East.

Monday, October 4

Fine day, but cold. Wind North West.

"Hunter" finished discharging at 1pm total turnout 528 1/4 Qtls.

Mr. Thomas Sullivan father of Wm Sullivan of this employ died at his home in King's Cove yesterday morning, the deceased was in his 89th year.

Tuesday, October 5

Wind about South West - fresh breeze. Dull all day with little rain at intervals.

"Saffron" arrived at Seldom this morning from Labrador. "Wilson" arrived at Trinity at 3pm from Webber's Hr. & Batteau with cargo of codfish (Labrador) and some cod oil and empty steel drums on deck.

Finished packing 225 -2's Labrador codfish today.

Wednesday, October 6

Wind North West in morning shifting to Southerly in afternoon and getting dull.

Put 200 - 2 Qtl Brls Labrador fish aboard "Hunter" landed 328 Qtls from "Wilson" and packed 14 Brld today.

Thursday, October 7

Dull in morning, wind Southerly.

Started landing from "Wilson" at about 11 o'clock and worked until 3pm when it got too damp to continue any longer.

"Hunter" ready for St. John's at 6pm.

Friday, October 8

Wind S.S. West blowing strong with very heavy rain, from early morning till 4pm when rain ceased and wind dropped.

Saturday, October 9

"Hunter" sailed for St. John's at daylight this morning with 200 - 2qtl Brls Labrador codfish - No brands on Brls. Wind then about North West very light. About 1 pm wind came from South, still very light. At 6pm calm.

Landed 303 qtls from "Wilson" today. Had some Lab. Fish, from Wilson's first cargo, spread today.

Rev. Mr. Torrville & family left by train last night for Bay Roberts his new mission. He was stationed here (C. of E. Clergyman) for the past 7 years.

Sunday, October 10

Wind North West - fine day. "Saffron" from Labrador arrived at 11am. Skipper Dick Fowlow from Labrador came in about 9am. "Saffron" has a full load of Lab. fish.

Monday, October 11

Wind from the East in forenoon, light. Finished discharging "Wilson" at twelve noon.

Got Saffron to wharf before dinner. After dinner became dull with wind changing to South East and increasing as evening advanced. At 5pm it was blowing quite strong.

Landed steel drums & cod oil from "Saffron" this afternoon but too dull to start discharging fish.

Tuesday, October 12

Blew a gale last night from the South East with heavy rain. This morning wind was from the South West very strong. Too dull to land fish first part of morning but it gradually cleared and at 11 o'clock commenced discharging "Saffron".

3:30pm - Blowing a gale from the South West - splendid looking fish so far being landed from "Saffron" - very white and clean looking, quite a contrast from some Labrador fish.

S.S "Kyle" coming South, has been storm bound at Seldom since last evening.

Wednesday, October 13

Wind about South West today - blowing strong since two pm.

Landed 500 qtls Labrador codfish from "Saffron" today.

"Hunter" arrived from St. John's at 6pm.

Thursday, October 14

Wind North East, light. Raining all day.

Friday, October 15

Raining all day - Wind North East.

S.S. "Northern Ranger" here from North at 11am to land some fishing crews.

Saturday, October 16

Fine day. Wind North West, blowing strong, cold.

Landed 505 Qtls from "Saffron" today.

"Sagona" here from St. John's at 11pm.

Sunday, October 17

Wind North West, light. Fine.

Monday, October 18
Wind North West, light. Fine.
"Saffron" finished discharging at 5pm.

Tuesday, October 19
Dull. Wind Southerly light.
S.S. "Kyle" here at 7am bound to Labrador.
"Saffron's" crew paid off this am.

Wednesday, October 20

Wind Southerly, light.

"Saffron's" crew left for their homes this morning by Schnr
"Wilson".

Thursday, October 21

Fairly fine. Calm.

Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan came from St. John's by last evening's train.

S.S. "Sagona" here from North at 1pm.

Friday, October 22

No wind of any account. Fine.

Packing Labrador fish for Greece.

Saturday, October 23

A beautifully fine day. Wind Southerly, light.

"Wilson" returned from Bay at 10 oclock last night.

Put port cargo aboard "Wilson" this pm.

"Sagona" here from St. John's at 5pm.

Sunday, October 24

Wind Southerly light with thick fog best part of day.

Monday, October 25

Wind S.S. West fair breeze.

Raining off and on all day.

Finished loading "Wilson" and vessel hauled off in stream at 5pm.

Tuesday, October 26

Fine day, wind North, light.

"Wilson" sailed early this morning for St. John's.

Mr EJ Ryan went to St. John's by this evening's train.

Wednesday, October 27

Fine, but not a good drying day. Wind S.S. West, light breeze. Weighed out and spread on flake this morning 37 qtls of Labrador fish (usual drieth) to dry it suitable for the Porto Rico market. Took it up in the afternoon and it weighed in 35 35 qtls - a loss of 2 qtls on 37 or roughly 5 1/2%.

Thursday, October 28

Dull wind. Southerly light. Fog Horn 'going' after 4pm. Shifted "Saffron" from wharf to Cove after dinner.

Friday, October 29

Dull. Wind South South East, light.

Too soft today to do anything with our Labrador codfish.

"Hunter" laid up today.

Saturday, October 30

Fairly fine, but a bit soft. Wind Southerly, good breeze.

"Sagona" here from North at 11:30am.

Men cleaning Labrador fish today.

Sunday, October 31

Wind S.S. West in morning blowing very strong.

In afternoon, wind North East, raw & cold.

Monday, November 1

Fine day. Wind North, good breeze.

Mr. EJ Ryan come from St. John's by last night's train.

Tuesday, November 2

Wind North, fair breeze. Fine and a bit cold.

Packing Labrador codfish in 5 Qtl casks past two days.

"Sagona" here from St. John's at 11:30pm and remained in port all night.

Wednesday, November 3

Wind South West, blowing strong.

Put "Hunter" ashore in Gotts Cove this pm to try to find leak in her, which has been giving considerable trouble since W.

Goldsworthy brought vessel here this fall.

Thursday, November 4

Wind West, North West. Light.

Men at "Hunter" last night from midnight until 2 o'clock this morning found leak, hauled vessel off and moored her in Gotts Cove.

Friday, November 5

A fine day, wind.

"Wilson" arrived from St. John's at 12 o'clock last night.

Saturday, November 6

Wind South, blowing fairly strong for a time.

Got "Saffron" to wharf this am and put 6p casks aboard.

Sunday, November 7

Wind Southerly, blowing strong with heavy rain.

Monday, November 8

Wind North West, fair breeze.

Loading "Saffron" and packing Labrador fish.

S.S. "Kyle" here at 8am from Labrador. Messrs. JT. Sheehan and Thomas Sullivan were passengers from Batteau.

Tuesday, November 9

Wind Southerly, strong breeze all day.

M.V. "Swile" of Port Union by our wharf at 10am to take some shore fish which we have.

"Saffron" ready for St. John's at 5pm with 150 - 5 Qtl casks Lab codfish, 50 - 3 Qtl Brls Lab codfish, 50 - 2 Qtls Brls Lab codfish for Piraeus. 20 - 5 Qtl casks Lab codfish for Liverpool.

Mrs K.M.G. Ryan came here by train this evening from Bonavista.

Wednesday, November 10

From 8am to 12:30pm wind Southerly blowing strong with heavy rain. After dinner clearing, wind West South West, light.

"Sagona" here from North at 2:30pm.

"Saffron" by wharf ready for St. John's.

Thursday, November 11

Wind West South West. Light.

"Saffron" sailed for St. John's at 11:30am.

Friday, November 12

Fairly fine. Wind West North West.

"Saffron" arrived at St. John's 10 o'clock last night.

Saturday, November 13

Wind North East, good breeze. A scud of snow fell early this morning.

Mrs. K.M.G. Ryan and Mr. E.J. Ryan went to St. John's by last night's trains.

Sunday, November 14

Wind North East, blowing strong with snow showers.

'Sagona" here from St. John's at 11:30 last night.

Monday, November 15

Raw cold day. Wind North East.

Mr. Arthur Collett, who succeeds Mr. George Lilly as Customs Collector here arrived by "Sagona" on Saturday night. Mr. Collett was Collector at Harbor Buffett for a number of years.

Tuesday, November 16

Wind South East, very light. Dull and soft.

Wednesday, November 17

Wind Southerly, light. Dull and foggy with light rain at intervals.

Thursday, November 18

Dull and soft. Wind Southerly with fog in afternoon.

Friday, November 19

Wind S.S. West blowing a gale from early morning until noon when it veered Westerly and blew with considerable force. Wind started to moderate around four o'clock pm and at 6pm it was almost calm.

Saturday, November 20

A very fine day, wind South West.

"Saffron" arrived from St. John's at 4:30pm with salt and other goods.

Sunday, November 21

Wind Southerly, strong breeze, increasing towards evening.

Monday, November 22

Raining before midnight until noon with wind Southerly blowing strong in morning.

"Sagona" here from North at 4:30 last evening and remained in port until 7 o'clock this morning.

Commenced landing cargo from "Saffron" at 2pm.

Mr. E.J. Ryan returned from St. John's by last night's train.

Tuesday, November 23

Dull and calm.

Finished discharging "Saffron" and put some ballast aboard.

Wednesday, November 24
Fairly fine. Wind light and variable.
Loading "Saffron" today.

Thursday, November 25
Fine day. Wind North West.
Finished loading "Saffron" at 2pm and vessel sailed for St. John's at 3:30pm.
At about 4pm there was a light snow shower but it did not last very long.
"Sagona" in from St. John's at 5pm and remained in port all night.
Wrote BJ & Co. Today to cancel insurance on "Wilson" at end of month also the 'Hunters'.

Friday, November 26

Fine day but cold. Wind North West moderate breeze.
"Saffron" arrived at St. John's at 4 o'clock this morning.

Saturday, November 27

Wind North West, fine.

Mr. EJ Ryan went to St. John's by last night's train.

Moored Schooner "Wilson" in Tom Jones Cove this pm.

Sunday, November 28

Cold and raw, wind North East.

Monday, November 29

Soft mild day, with a scattered snow shower. Wind North shifting to South West.

Tuesday, November 30

Wind Southerly blowing strong with heavy rain after dinner.

Wednesday, December 1
Fine day. Wind North West light.

Thursday, December 2
A beautifully fine day. Wind West, light.

Friday, December 3

Wind Easterly, with light snow after dinner.

Hauled up big motor boat today.

Saturday, December 4

Winter prevailing today. Wind North East, snowing since last evening and all day today. Snow in some places four feet deep.

Sunday, December 5

Wind East North East, raining nearly all day.

Monday, December 6

Wind South East blowing strong with heavy rain all day.

Tuesday, December 7

Wind South East, light, foggy.

Raining more or less all day. Practically all snow which fell on Saturday is now gone.

Wednesday, December 8

Wind South, light. Raining all forenoon. At 3pm it cleared off and gave promise of a fine day tomorrow.

Thursday, December 9

Wind Southerly, light with thick fog all day.

S.S. "Sagona" here at 6pm from St. John's.

Friday, December 10
Wind Southerly with dense fog in afternoon.

Saturday, December 11
Wind East North East. Soft and dull.
Roads and hills bare of all snow now.

Sunday, December 12
Wind South East light. Foggy in afternoon with drizzling rain.

Monday, December 13

Wind Southerly in forenoon.

"Saffron" left St. John's at 8am and arrived here at 9pm all well.

Tuesday, December 14

Fine day expecting for about an hour in morning when there was a heavy snow shower.

'Saffron" hauled to wharf and discharged.

Capt Hazel Fowlow arrived from St. John's at 11am.

Wednesday, December 15

Wind North West, fresh breeze.

"Saffron" left from British Harbor and Little Harbor at 10 o'clock am.

Thursday, December 16

Wind this morning North. Snowing fast till noon when it cleared.

Wind veered North West and it got cold.

Mr and Mrs E.J. Ryan returned from St. John's by last night's train.

Friday, December 17

A beautifully fine day. Wind light. Cold.

Saturday, December 18

Fine. Cold. Wind Northerly, light.

"Saffron" here from Little Harbor at 3:30pm with about 24 M feet lumber. Moored vessel by wharf and unbent sails.

Packed 25 Brls Labrador codfish and took in 55 Qtls shore fish.

Sunday, December 19

Snowing before daylight followed by rain. Wind Southerly.

Monday, December 20

Wind North East, light.

Discharged "Saffron" today.

Mr Hugh Palmer and Miss Joyce Goldsworthy daughter of Mr.

A.L. Goldsworthy of this firm, were married at Bonavista today.

Tuesday, December 21

Fine day wind.

S.S. "Sagona" here at 2pm bound to St. John's.

Shipped 25 Brls Labrador codfish by "Sagona" for St. John's, destined for Liverpool.

Mr. Palmer and bride returned from Bonavista by this evening's train.

Wednesday, December 22
Fine, cold. Wind North West, strong breeze.

Thursday, December 23
Wind North East. Light snow falling all day.

Friday, December 24

Wind North West, good breeze until 4pm when it veered North East and got a bit mild.

S.S. "Sagona" here from St. John's at 2:30am.

Saturday, December 25

A beautifully fine day. Wind West light.

Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan and seven others went to King's Cove last night in two motor cars attended Midnight Mass and got back at three o'clock this morning.

Sunday, December 26

Wind North East blowing a gale, snowing and drifting.

Monday, December 27

Wind North East and snowing but not so much as yesterday.

Tuesday, December 28

Snowing off and on all day. Wind North East, fair breeze. Piles of snow around after the storm of the two past days.

Wednesday, December 29

Wind Southerly, strong breeze, with snow showers. Last night was cold, a good deal of ice made on Harbor.

Thursday, December 30

From last evening till daylight this morning it blew a gale from the South West with snow, then wind veered Northerly and blew strong with high drift. A stormy day.

M.S. "Wop" arrived here at 5:30 last evening from St. John's.

Train in from Clarenville at 2pm.

Friday, December 31
Wind North light. Cold. Snow flurries after dinner.