

Wednesday, January 1
Holiday - all stores closed.
Wind North light, raw.

Thursday, January 2

Wind North East, cold and raw.

Rupert Morris and party motored to King's Cove last evening and after spending a few hours returned again. They made summer time both going and returning.

S.S. "Sagona" here from North at 4pm and remained in port all night.

Friday, January 3

Wind North East light, with snow flurries.

Saturday, January 4

A fine day. Cold wind South West very light. Harbor and SW Arm caught over last night.

Sunday, January 5

(No Entry)

Monday, January 6

Wind Southerly. Shifting to North with occasional snow flurries.

S.S. "Sagona" here from St. John's at 2pm.

Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan who had been at St. John's for the past couple of months returned by "Sagona".

Holiday - all stores closed.

L.O.A. and S.U.F. paraded today.

Tuesday, January 7

Wind North, fine and very cold.

Wednesday, January 8

Cold. Wind North light.

Thursday, January 9

A beautifully fine day. Wind West light. Harbor and South West Arm caught over last night.

Friday, January 10

A fine day. Cold. Wind North light.

W.G. Mills in his Schooner "A.B. Mills" arrived from St. John's this pm via Port Rexton.

Saturday, January 11

Wind South West, mild.

Sunday, January 12

Wind South East, blowing strong with fog and rain.

Monday, January 13

Wind Southerly blowing very strong. Raining hard in forenoon.

Tuesday, January 14

A cold day. Wind South West, blowing strong with occasional snow showers.

Wednesday, January 15

Wind West by North. Fair breeze. Fine, cold.

Monday, January 13

Wind Southerly blowing very strong. Raining hard in forenoon.

Tuesday, January 14

A cold day. Wind South West, blowing strong with occasional snow showers.

Wednesday, January 15

Wind West by North. Fair breeze. Fine, cold.

Monday, January 20

A cold raw day. Wind South East.

Schooner "Marion Duffett" bound to Clifton from St. John's harbored here last night, and is now (4pm) stuck in the ice just inside the Nuddick.

A few inches of snow fell last night.

Tuesday, January 21

Wind North East. Cold with snow showers.

Wednesday, January 22

Mild. Wind North East.

Thursday, January 23

Cold and raw. Wind North East until around 5pm when it veered Southerly.

Friday, January 24

Wind North with snow flurries. Harbor ice broke up last night. Quite a bit of snow fell last night and early this morning.

Saturday, January 25

Wind North East, snowing.

Sunday, January 26

Snowing little after dinner. Wind North East, light.

Monday, January 27

A stormy day. Snowing and drifting all day. Wind N.N. West blowing strong.

Tuesday, January 28

Wind North blowing strong in forenoon with some drift. A good bit of snow fell yesterday and last night.

Train in from Clarendville at 11:30am with mails and passengers.

Wednesday, January 29

Wind East to South, light in morning but increasing towards nightfall with wet snow.

Thursday, January 30

Mild. Wind Southerly blowing strong for a while.

Friday, January 31

Soft and mild. No wind. A good bit of snow fell last night.

Messrs F.J. Morris and Geo Hoskins arrived by this morning's train. The latter who is Railway agent at Carbonear came to see his brother who is very ill.

Saturday, February 1

Wind Southerly, mild. Little snow fell last night.

Sunday, February 2

Calm and mild.

Monday, February 3
Mild, no wind.
Trinity Benefit Club met this forenoon.

Tuesday, February 4
Wind Easterly, mild.
Mr & Mrs W. N. White hence to Bonavista by train at noon today.
Fine snow falling at 5pm.

Wednesday, February 5
Wind S.S. West blowing a gale all day. Some snow sleet and rain fell last night.

Thursday, February 6
Wind N.N. West. Fair breeze.

Friday, February 7
A beautifully fine day, wind Easterly light.

Saturday, February 8
Wind South East. A bit mild. Dull and cloudy after dinner.

Sunday, February 9
Snow showers before dinner. Wind S. West. Mild, clearing after dinner and getting cold.

Monday, February 10

Wind North West blowing hard and very cold.

Mr & Mrs White returned from Bonavista at noon today.

Raymond, son of Mr & Mrs Augustus Lock of this place left by this morning's train for St. John's to join the Royal Navy.

Tuesday, February 11

A fine day. Wind West. Not so cold as yesterday.

Wednesday, February 12

A very fine day. Wind North West light.

Train with mails and passengers in from Clarendville at 8:30am.

This train was due here yesterday morning but had to wait arrival of Cross Country Express which was delayed.

Thursday, February 13

A fine day. Cold, no wind. Harbor caught over last night.

Friday, February 14

A beautifully fine day, not cold. Very little wind from any direction.
Harbour frozen over.

Saturday, February 15

Fine, soft. Wind South West.

Sunday, February 16

Wind Southerly, raining hard during early morning and forenoon.

Monday, February 17
Soft and mild. Wind South West, light.

Tuesday, February 18
Wind S.S. East blowing strong with heavy rain and wet snow.

Wednesday, February 19
Wind West shifting to North West getting colder as evening advanced.

Thursday, February 20

Wind South West, fair breeze with snow flurries.

Friday, February 21

Wind South, cold and raw.

The Girl Guides of this place put off a concert here last night. It was well attended and the proceeds amounted to over $40.00.

Saturday, February 22

A beautifully fine day until 4pm when thick fog set in, with South wind.

Sunday, February 23

A fine day. Nice and warm. No wind.

Monday, February 24

Wind North East, light in morning but increasing as day advanced.

Tuesday, February 25

Wind North East, with snow showers in forenoon.

Train from Clarendville at 2pm with English, American and local mails.

Wednesday, February 26

Wind East, light with wet snow falling.

This firm's office and stores closed today.

Thursday, February 27

Wind North East, light. Snowing fast after dinner which later turned to rain.

Capt Stan Barbour and men left here by today's train for St. John's to join their ship S.S. "Terra Nova" for the seal fishery. Raining hard and blowing strong at 5pm.

Friday, February 28

Fine day. Wind East.

Saturday, March 1

Wind South East. Light, foggy.

Sunday, March 2

Nice and warm with sunshine. Very little wind.

Monday, March 3

Raw, wind South West with scattered snow flurries.

Tuesday, March 4

Mild. Wind South West shifting to South after dinner.

Wednesday, March 5

Calm in morning, mild. After dinner wind North East with snow.

Four steamers "Eagle", "Terra Nova" "Ranger" and "Neptune" sailed this morning from St. John's for the seal fishery.

Thursday, March 6
Wind West, light. Cold, fine.

Friday, March 7
Fine day. Cold. Wind West.

Saturday, March 8
A beautifully fine day. Wind west.

Sunday, March 9
Stormy. Wind North East, snowing and drifting all day.

Monday, March 10
Wind South West, fine and mild.

Tuesday, March 11
In morning wind North East, snowing. Clearing after dinner and becoming cold - wind shifting to North.

Wednesday, March 12
Wind South West. Fine.

Thursday, March 13

Cold. Wind North East, with snow before dinner.

Friday, March 14

Fine day. Cold. Wind West. Harbor froze over last night.

Train passed up at 2pm.

Saturday, March 15

A very fine day. No wind. Cold.

Train in from Clarendville at 9am with mails and passengers from St. John's. Const Baggs who had been at St. John's returned by this morning's train.

Sunday, March 16

A beautifully fine day. Wind South West, light.

Monday, March 17

Mild. Wind Easterly.

This firms office and stores closed today.

Tuesday, March 18

Wind Southerly, increasing as day advanced and from 3pm it was blowing strong with snow showers.

Wednesday, March 19

Wind Southerly, light. Snowing in afternoon.

Thursday, March 20

Wind South shifting to South West with snow flurries.

Friday, March 21

Wind North East. Snowing practically all day, particularly so after dinner.

Fred, son of Wm Gover of this place arrived home by this morning's train - Fred left here sometime during last August to join the Royal Navy and after spending some time in England was injured during a raid and was sent to a hospital where he spent a long period.

Saturday, March 22

Wind S.S. West strong. Snowing and drifting all day.

Schooner "Angela B Mills" arrived here this morning from Little Harbor with a cargo of lumber bound to St. John's.

Sunday, March 23

Wind North shifting to North East after dinner - from then until midnight it was snowing and drifting.

Monday, March 24

Mild, wind North East. Snowing little in forenoon. Piles of snow around after storms of Saturday and yesterday.

Train reported to be leaving Bonavista this pm.

Tuesday, March 25

A fine day. Wind North East light none after dinner.

Train left Bonavista at 6am.

Started repairing codtraps this am.

Capt Mills left for St. John's at 8:30am and arrived there at 5pm.

Wednesday, March 26

Wind South East, light. Fine, sun shining nearly all day.

Train which left Bonavista yesterday morning at 6 o'clock had not reached Catalina at 2pm.

Thursday, March 27

Fine day. Wind South West. A scad of snow fell last night.

The train which left Bonavista Tuesday left again but up to now 5pm had not arrived at Port Rexton. A train left Clareville at 9am reached about noon and is now inside of the loop

Friday, March 28

Wind Southwest - Fine.

Train arrived at the station here from Clareville at 7 o'clock last evening and after a short delay left for Clareville again.

Mr & Mrs W,N, White left for St. John's by that train.

Train from Bonavista which left there on Tuesday 25th, reached the station at 11am and proceeded on to Clareville.

Saturday, March 29

Wind Easterly with cold rain after dinner.

Train here from Clareville at 11:30am with mails and passengers. This is our first mail since Friday 21st.

Sunday, March 30

Mild. Wind South West strong. Raining after tea.

Monday, March 31

Wind North West shifting to South West with snow flurries.

Tuesday, April 1

Cold with snow flurries. Wind Southerly.

Wednesday, April 2

Wind Southerly. Dull and mild.

Thursday, April 3

Fine day. Wind N.N. East.

Train here from Clarendville early this morning with mails and passengers. Our last mail from St. John's was on Saturday, March 29th.

Friday, April 4

Fine but a bit cold. Wind North East.

Saturday, April 5

Wind North East.

Train in from Clarendville at 11am.

Schooner "AB Mills" here from St. John's via Port Rexton at 6:30pm.

Sunday, April 6

A cold day. Wind North East.

Monday, April 7

A fine day. Wind South East, light.

Schooner "Angela B. Mills" by our wharf at 6am landing goods.

Tuesday, April 8

Wind N.N. West blowing very strong.

Train reported to be leaving Clarendville at 6pm.

Wednesday, April 9

Mild. No wind.

Train in from Clarendville at 1am with mail.

Thursday, April 10
A fine day. Warm, wind S. West light.

Friday, April 11
Wind North East cold with snow flurries in morning.
All stores closed today.

Saturday, April 12
A very fine day. Wind South.

Sunday, April 13
A beautifully fine day. Wind South West.

Monday, April 14

Wind South West, fine but no sun.

Spread some Labrador fish, the wettest we had in store.

Rupert Morris, son of Mr & Mrs F.J. Morris left here by this morning's train for Halifax where he intends joining the Royal Canadian Engineers.

Tuesday, April 15

Dull and close. Wind Southerly.

Train in from Clarenville at 4pm.

Wednesday, April 16

Wind Southerly with heavy rain at noon accompanied by thunder and lightning.

Thursday, April 17

A very fine day. Nice and warm. Wind North light.
Had Labrador fish spread today.

Friday, April 18

Dull and calm.

Mr & Mrs W.N. White arrived from St. John's by train this morning.
Packing Labrador fish today.

Saturday, April 19

Wind North, cold.

Sunday, April 20

A disagreeable day. Wind Southerly with snow showers.

Monday, April 21
Wind Southerly, cold and raw.

Tuesday, April 22
Wind Southerly with heavy thunder in forenoon. Fine after dinner.
Wind veering South West.

Wednesday, April 23
Wind North blowing very strong.
Schooner "Exotic" Capt Wm H Smith here from the Bay this morning en route to Bell Island.

Thursday, April 24
Fine day. Wind North.

Friday, April 25
Wind South East. Fine cold.
Mills left for St. John's early this morning.
P. Hanlon and crew brought "Wilson" from Tom Jones' Cove this pm and moored Schooner by wharf.

Saturday, April 26
A beautifully fine day. Wind South West.
"Wilson's" crew fitting up vessel.

Sunday, April 27
Fine, warm. Wind South West, light. Calm after tea.

Monday, April 28
Raining all day. Wind Southerly.

Tuesday, April 29
Stormy. Wind North East, blowing a gale all day with snow.
Mr Albert Pittman, Blacksmith and Taxi Driver here for the past eight to ten years left by this afternoon's train for St. John's where he will join the staff of Marshall Motors, Ltd. Albert is the son of Mr & Mrs Ralph Pittman of this place.

Wednesday, April 30
Winter weather prevailing again today. Wind North East strong with snow and drift.

Thursday, May 1

A disagreeable cold raw day. Wind North East with rain in forenoon.

S.S. "Clyde" here from St. John's at 12:30pm with passengers, mail and freight.

Friday, May 2

Wind North East, decreasing.

Saturday, May 3

Fairly fine - getting warmer. No wind in forenoon. After dinner wind North.

Sunday, May 4

Wind Southerly, light with rain which later turned to snow.

Monday, May 5

Wind Southerly, raining with some fog.

Mills arrived from St. John's last evening and is landing goods today.

Loose ice running in this pm.

Tuesday, May 6

Wind Southerly. Light rain in afternoon. Entrance and North side of Harbor filled with loose ice.

Wednesday, May 7

A disagreeable day. Wind North East with wet snow.

Thursday, May 8

Fine day. Wind North, light at 6pm. Wind Southerly.

Friday, May 9

Dull. Wind Southerly with some rain.

"Wilson" left for Port Rexton at 3pm.

Herbert J. Vey by this morning's train to arrange about taking over Schooner "Hunter" for the summer.

Saturday, May 10

Dull, calm and foggy.

Sunday, May 11

Raining nearly all day. Wind Southerly, light. Harbor full of loose ice.

Monday, May 12

Wind Southerly with fog and scattered showers.

Mr W.N. White went to Bonavista by train at 1pm today.

Tuesday, May 13

Dull and raining. Wind Southerly light. Fog hom going practically all day.

Mr & Mrs White returned from Bonavista this pm.

Wednesday, May 14

Wind Southerly light with some fog and showers in afternoon.

S.S. "Glencoe" here at 5:30pm from St John's on her first trip for the season.

Thursday, May 15

Raining all day. Wind Southerly with dense fog in forenoon.

Friday, May 16

Clearing a little this morning but fog settled down again in evening.

The funeral of the late John A. House who died at Corner Brook on Monday 12th, and whose body arrived by this morning's train, took place this afternoon and was largely attended. Several of his associates from Corner Brook and St. John's came here to attend the funeral. The late Mr. House was a native of Trinity and was 57 yrs old.

Saturday, May 17

No wind. Raining from early morning till 4pm when it cleared up a little, but far from being fine.

Schooner "Mary Pauline" coal laden consigned to this firm ready to leave North Sydney for here.

Sunday, May 18

Dull. Wind Southerly with fog and some rain in afternoon.

Monday, May 19

Clearing. Wind S.S. West increasing as day advanced and at 5pm it was blowing strong.

Road is now open between King's Cove and here. First car came over this evening but the occupants had to shovel a good bit of snow.

Tuesday, May 20

Wind North East. Cold with rain in afternoon.

Our motor boat left for British Harbor at 6am with "Saffron's" sails and returned from there at 1pm with 2 1/2 M feet 1/2"x1" board.

"Wilson" left Port Rexton this am for Petley to load lumber.

Wednesday, May 21

A fine day. Wind South West.

Thursday, May 22

Fine day. Wind South East shifting to S.S. West.
S.S. "Northern Ranger" here at 5am from St. John's

Friday, May 23

Wind South West. Fine.
"Hunter" here early this morning from Long beach with a load lumber bound to St. John's.

Saturday, May 24

Dull. Wind South light.
Spread and packed some Labrador fish today.
"Hunter" sailed at 1:30pm for St. John's.

Sunday, May 25

Wind Southerly raining hard in forenoon. Clearing after dinner.
Wind South West.

Monday, May 26
Fine. Wind South, fresh breeze.

Tuesday, May 27
Fairly fine. Wind South.
"Saffron" here from Hodge's Cove early this morning.
"Glencoe" here at 9:30am from North.
Mr W.N. White went to Catalina last evening to pay duty etc on cargo of coal per "Mary Pauline" consigned to this firm which vessel arrived at Port Union last evening.

Wednesday, May 28
Fine day. Wind North, good breeze.
Spreading and packing Labrador fish today.
Schooner "Mary Pauline" coal laden 264 tons arrived here at 11am from North Sydney via Port Union.
S.S. "Kyle" here at 6:30am bound to Labrador.

Thursday, May 29

Wind South, fine morning but rain after dinner.

"Mary Pauline" commenced discharging at 6:30am.

"Saffron" by Govt wharf getting ready to heave down.

Friday, May 30

A stormy day. Wind North East increasing as day advanced and at noon it was blowing a gale with heavy wet snow.

Started landing from "Mary Pauline" at 6am but had to stop after an hour owing to the high wind and wet snow and later had to haul vessel off from coal wharf.

Raining at 6pm but wind dropping.

Saturday, May 31

Dull day. Wind North, very light breeze. Some light showers during day.

"Mary Pauline" landing all day.

S.S. "Glencoe" here from St. John's at 5pm.

Sunday, June 1

Fine day. Wind South West fair breeze.

Monday, June 2

Wind South, fine day.

Hove out "Saffron" on both sides.

"Mary Pauline" discharging all day.

Robert Woolridge of Dunfield had a few Qtls codfish (reported to be 15 Qtls) from his trap this am.

Tuesday, June 3

Fine from early morning until after dinner when it got dull and overcast. Wind Southerly fresh breeze in afternoon.

"Mary Pauline" finished discharging at 8am and proceeded to Tavernors Cove to ballast.

Painting "Saffron" around today.

Wednesday, June 4

Wind North East, shifting to North after dinner and becoming finer.

"Mary Pauline" finished ballasting at 1pm and left for Sydney at 4:30.

"Saffron" by wharf getting ready for St. John's.

Thursday, June 5

Fine day. Wind North. Strong breeze.

"Saffron" ready for St. John's this pm.

Friday, June 6

Wind North. Strong breeze.

"Saffron" sailed for St. John's at 8:30am.

Finished packing last of our 1940 Labrador codfish today. Now in store:

281 - 2 Qtl Brls = 562 Qtls

Cullage Say 6to 8 Qtls

Saturday, June 7

Fine, but not warm. Wind Southerly.

Sunday, June 8

Wind North, fresh breeze.

"Hunter" arrived from St. John's at 6am with 120 Hhds salt.

Monday, June 9

Wind South East with fog in forenoon and rain after tea.

Schooner "Acme" bound North when harboring here yesterday grounded on what is known as the "Mussel Bed". The vessel was laden with salt and supplies. After some of the salt had been put aboard "Morris" boat the Schooner was refloated and came to Anchorage.

"Hunter's" crew supplied this pm.

"Glencoe" here at 4:30pm from North.

Tuesday, June 10

Wind South East, foggy in forenoon. After dinner wind South S. West - fine.

"Hunter" left for home early this morning.

Schooner "Ivy Frances" Drodge Master, harbored here last evening en route to Labrador.

Raining after tea.

Wednesday, June 11

Raining all day. Wind South East.

A.L. Goldsworthy went from home from shop before dinner being unwell.

Thursday, June 12

Wind North East blowing strong with wet snow in afternoon.

"Saffron" arrived from St. John's at 10am and crew was supplied this afternoon.

"Glencoe" here from St. John's at midnight last night.

A.L. Goldsworthy at work again this morning.

Friday, June 13

Wind North East blowing very strong till noon when it veered North and again blew strong for a while when it started to decrease and at 7pm there was only a moderate breeze.

"Saffron" left for Hodge's Cove at 6:30pm.

Saturday, June 14

A fine day, fairly warm. Wind South.

S.S. "Kyle" here at midnight (last night) bound to Labrador.

Sunday, June 15

Dull. Wind Southerly light. Calm after tea.

"Wilson" arrived from St. John's at 6am. #

Monday, June 16

Wind South South West, fine.

"Wilson" discharged today.

Thick fog after tea with a few heavy showers of rain.

Tuesday, June 17

Fine day. Wind South West.

Allan Tucker, who harbored here last evening left early this morning for Labrador.

Raining at and after 4pm.

Wednesday, June 18

Fine day, wind South West.

Fine day, wind South West. Foggy in morning but clear in afternoon.

"Angela B. Mills" by wharf at 5:30pm landing some goods.

Thursday, June 19

Calm and foggy in forenoon.

"Wilson" left at 1pm for British Harbor there being a light breeze from South West.

Schooner "A Davis" here from Random last evening en route to Labrador.

Friday, June 20

Fine day. Wind North fresh breeze. Quite cool.

"Saffron" and "Hunter" here from Bay. The former from Hodges Cove at 11am and the latter from Long Beach at 2:30pm. Both vessels hauled to wharf to take aboard supplies for Labrador.

Saturday, June 21

Wind South West, fine.

"Saffron" and "Hunter" by wharves taking supplies etc aboard.

"Wilson" arrived from British Hr at 8pm.

Sunday, June 22

Wind East North East from early morning till after dinner when it shifted to South. Light rain after tea.

Monday, June 23

Very little wind until 10am when it came from North East and blew strong all day.

"Hunter" sailed at 7am but returned to anchorage at 10 o'clock.

"Wilson" by wharf discharging lumber from Edward Anderson, British Harbor.

Sam Miller in service this am. #

Tuesday, June 24

Dull. Wind Southerly.

"Hunter" sailed at daylight for Labrador.

"Saffron" hauled off from wharf at 10 o'clock am and sailed for Labrador at 3pm.

Skipper Lewis Fowlow sailed for Labrador today he has to call at St. Anthony for his supply of salt.

Wednesday, June 25

Dull. Wind Southerly. Very light.

"Wilson" finished discharging lumber and started loading Labrador codfish in Barrels.

Albert Fowlow left for Labrador today.

Thursday, June 26

Fine day. Wind North by East blowing very strong.
"Wilson" ready for St. John's this pm.

Friday, June 27

Wind N.N. West until around 3pm when it veered from the South.

"Wilson" left here at 6am for St. John's.

It was fine and warm today.

Schooner "Exotic" here this pm bound to Labrador.

Saturday, June 28

Fine day. No wind from any direction.

"Wilson" arrived at St. John's last evening so P. Hanlon wired this morning.

Sunday, June 29

Dull. Wind Southerly light, with rain and fog in forenoon. Clearing in evening, wind North.

Monday, June 30

Fine warm day. Wind South West.

"Glencoe" here at 10am bound South.

Kenneth Fowlow left for Labrador this am.

Tuesday, July 1

Fine day. Wind South West, smart breeze until after dinner when it dropped some.

Mr. John Hennebury of Bonavista paid us a visit this afternoon.

"Saffron" was at Change Islands yesterday.

Wednesday, July 2

Wind South West. Good breeze.

Hazel Fowlow sailed for Labrador this am.

Thursday, July 3

Shifting winds South to North West strong breeze. Fine, warm. A sever thunder and lightning storm with rain was experienced here this morning between five and six o oclock. The lightning was almost continuous and thunder was very heavy and quite near here.

Schooner "Lucky Strike" by wharf at 2pm landing staves etc. "Saffron" at Saint Anthony yesterday.

Friday, July 4

Fine day. Wind North West, blowing strong.

"Lucky Strike" discharging lumber.

Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan went to St John's by tonight's train.

Saturday, July 5

Wind North West blowing very strong. Fine, warm.

"Lucky Strike" sailed at 7:30am for St. John's.

"Glencoe" here from St. John's at 5:30pm.

"Wilson" arrived from St. John's at 7pm.

Sunday, July 6

A nice warm day. Wind South fair breeze.

Monday, July 7

Fine day. Wind South good breeze.

S.S. "Kyle" here at 11:30am yesterday bound to Labrador. J.T.

Sheehan and housekeeper took passages by "Kyle" to Batteau.

"Wilson" discharging this pm.

Hannah Hayter commenced her holidays this am.

Tuesday, July 8

Wind Southerly, light foggy.

Raining all day.

Wednesday, July 9

Raining from early morning until noon. Little or no wind. Dense fog in afternoon.

"Saffron" arrived at Batteau today.

Thursday, July 10
A beautifully fine day. Warm.
Wind South West. Good breeze.

Friday, July 11
Fine and warm today. Wind Southerly.
Following telegram received at 5:30pm from John T. Sheehan
Batteau;
"Saffron, Hunter and Slef arrived Wednesday well. Harbor full ice good sign fish".

Saturday, July 12
Wind S.S. West good breeze. Nice and warm today.

Sunday, July 13
Wind Southerly, light. Raining off and on all day.

Monday, July 14

Raining all day. Wind Southerly.

S.S. "Glencoe" here from North at 3:30pm.

Tuesday, July 15

Fine warm day. Wind Southerly light.

Owing to the dense fog which prevailed after arrival of "Glencoe" here last evening. Ship remained in port until daylight this morning.

"Wilson" left this morning for Little Harbor.

Wednesday, July 16

Warm day. Wind Southerly, very light.

H. Hayter returned to work this am.

Thursday, July 17

Dull, sultry and calm.

Pat McGrath commenced his holidays this am and left for St. John's at 8:30 by Schooner "AB Mills" but returned at 1pm owing to fog and a good bit of "Head Pitch". "Mills" had a heavy deck load including an automobile.

Mr. W.N. White went to Bonavista this am.

Friday, July 18

A very fine day. Wind South West light in forenoon but a nice breeze after dinner.

Mills left here at 6am for St John's

S.S. "Kyle" here at 3pm from Labrador. Ship was as far as Holten and reports a good deal of ice and a fair sign of codfish.

W.N. White arrived back from Bonavista at midnight last night.

Saturday, July 19

Wind South West, light. Fine and warm.

"Glencoe" in port at 6:30pm bound North.

Sunday, July 20

A beautifully fine day. Wind South light.

"Wilson" arrived from Little Harbor at 11am with a load of lumber fro St. John's.

Monday, July 21

Fine day. Wind South by West.

"Wilson" landed a few thousand board and made ready for St. John's

Tuesday, July 22

A very warm day, particularly so in the afternoon. Wind South West shifting to West nice breeze.

"Wilson" left this morning, about 7 o'clock for St. John's.

Wednesday, July 23

Fine and warm. Wind South West blowing strong all day.

Following telegram received this am from John T. Sheehan at Batteau.

"Ice clear fair trapping can expect good report next mail."

Thursday, July 24

Fine warm with very little wind.

The C. of E. Garden party took place here yesterday afternoon.

Proceeds amounted to over $300.00. The stores closed at 2:30pm or just before the event started.

S.S. "Kyle" here at 1:30am bound to Labrador.

Very warm in afternoon.

Friday, July 25

A fine warm day. Wind South West.

The body of Eliol Stone who disappeared at St. John's on or about January 5th arrived by today's train. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon. The body was located near the dry dock. It is presumed that he fell over the pier, whilst boarding S.S.

"Sagona" to come home.

Saturday, July 26

Dull. Wind South with some rain in early morning and afternoon.

The funeral of the late Eliol Stone took place at 2:30pm.

Sunday, July 27

Wind South East. Raining heavily from sometime early last night until around 4pm.

Monday, July 28

Wind North East. Light foggy. Raining occasionally during day.
P McGrath who had been on a holiday to St. John's returned by this evening's train.

Tuesday, July 29

Dull and cool. Wind North East light.

S.S. "Glencoe" here at 7am bound to St. John's.

Capt A. Lahey passed away at 8 o'clock last evening after a short illness. The deceased was in his 76th year and leaves a wife and four children. (Two sons and two daughters). One son is with the Nfld Forestry Service in Scotland having gone over in January 1940.

Wednesday, July 30

Dull and sultry. No wind.

The funeral of the late Capt Lahey took place at 10 o'clock this morning. The late Capt Lahey was an employee of this firm for a few years as well as Master of their Coasting Schooners and was also master of one of their foreign going Schooners ("Cariad") during the latter part of the last war.

Thursday, July 31

Dull and sultry until noon when it cleared off and got finer.

Wind South West good breeze.

Friday, August 1

Dull and close. Wind South, very light.

"Wilson" arrived from St. John's at 9:30 last night and discharged this am.

A.L. Goldsworthy went to St. John's by tonight's train.

Saturday, August 2

Wind Southerly light. Dense fog in forenoon and rain in evening.

"Glencoe" in port at 9:00pm from St. John's raining heavily then.

Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan returned by "Glencoe".

Sunday, August 3

Raining all day. Wind Southerly, light.

"Glencoe" sailed at daylight for North.

Monday, August 4

Wind Southerly, dull and foggy in forenoon. Clearing a bit after dinner.

Tuesday, August 5

Wind South shifting to South West good breeze after dinner.

"Wilson" by wharf awaiting a time for Little Harbor.

Wednesday, August 6

Fine day. Wind Southerly.

Today is "Regatta Day" at St. John's

"Wilson" left for Little Harbor this am.

Thursday, August 7

Wind Northerly, light. Excepting for a light shower in forenoon it was fairly fine.

Friday, August 8

A beautifully fine day. Wind South West.

A.L. Goldsworthy returned from St. John's by this morning's train.

Saturday, August 9

Dull. Wind Southerly.

"Kyle" left Hawks Harbor at 2 o'clock last evening coming South.

Sunday, August 10

Sultry day. Wind Southerly, very light.

Monday, August 11

Dull and sultry. Wind Southerly light. There was a very heavy rain from midnight last night until 12 o'clock this morning.

S.S. "Kyle" here at 3 o'clock last evening from Labrador.#

"Wilson" arrived from Little Harbor at 4 o'clock last evening with a load of lumber for St. John's.

"Glencoe" here at 10am from North.

Tuesday, August 12

Dull day. Very little wind.

"Wilson" in stream awaiting time to St. John's.

News received today of the death (from injuries received in an automobile accident) of Mrs Austin Somerton in New York. The late Mrs Somerton was a daughter of Mrs and the late Mr E.G.

grant of this place.

Wednesday, August 13

Raining all day. Wind Southerly.

"Kyle" leaving St. John's at noon today for Labrador.

Thursday, August 14

Fine day. Warm. Wind North in early morning to South West after dinner.

"Kyle" left St. John's at 2 oclock last evening and got here at 5:30 this morning bound to Labrador.

"Wilson" left at 9:30am for St. John's.

Friday, August 15

Wind South West, strong breeze. Fine and warm.

Saturday, August 16

Dull. Wind Southerly.

Mrs F.W. Ottenheimer who had been here on a visit to Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan returned to St. John's by last night's train.

Sunday, August 17

Wind Southerly blowing strong in afternoon with very heavy rain after 9pm.

Monday, August 18

Fine day. Wind West South West, blowing strong.

Tuesday, August 19

Wind West. A beautifully fine day.

Schooner "AB Mills" arrived from St. John's at 2pm.

Quite a few men from here and vicinity who had been home from the airport for the past two weeks returned to work by this evening's train.

Wednesday, August 20

Dull. Wind Southerly. Raw in afternoon.

Thursday, August 21
A very fine day. Wind North, light.

Friday, August 22
A fine day. Wind West.

Saturday, August 23
Fine. Wind South, nice breeze in afternoon.
Mr & Mrs S.J. Hefferton and daughter left here by last night's train for St. John's where Mr Hefferton will join the teaching staff of Bishop Field College. He had been principal of the C of E School here for the past years. His only son is serving on one of His Majesty's ships of the Royal Navy.

Sunday, August 24
Fairly fine. Wind Southerly.

Monday, August 25

Wind N.N. West good breeze in forenoon.

Peter Rex arrived at Port Rexton on Saturday evening 23rd from Labrador.

"Glencoe" in port at 10am bound South.

Tuesday, August 26

Dull. Wind Southerly, light breeze. Light rain in afternoon.

Wednesday, August 27

Foggy in forenoon. Wind Southerly light. Fine after dinner.

S.S. "Kyle" left Catalina early this morning and proceeded on to St. John's without calling here.

Thursday, August 28

Fine day. Wind South West, blowing very strong after dinner.

"Wilson" here from St. John's via Port Rexton at 11am hauled to wharf and discharged a quantity of goods.

Friday, August 29

Wind West shifting to North blowing strong.

"Wilson" commenced taking in coal for King's Cove at 3:30pm.

Our Labrador mail which "Kyle" carried to St. John's came here by this morning's train.

Saturday, August 30

A disagreeable day. Wind North East blowing strong with drizzling rain in evening.

"Wilson" taking in coal from 6am to 6pm. Total now onboard 48 to 50 tons.

Gerald S. Doyle's yacht "Queen of Nfld" here from King's Cove this pm.

"Glencoe" arrived from St. John's at 5:30pm.

Sunday, August 31

A fine day. Wind South light.

S.S. "Kyle" here from St. John's at 8am bound to Labrador.

Monday, September 1

Wind Southerly light with dense fog with about three to four pm when it cleared off and got fine.

"Wilson" by wharf ready for King's Cove with 48/50 tons coal and 10 M shingles.

Tuesday, September 2

"Wilson" sailed at 9am for King's Cove. Wind then South by West.

Shortly afterwards wind veered South and then South East and blew very strong with heavy rain which continued all day.

"Wilson" rain back to Champney's arriving there about 11am.

At 6pm clearing but still blowing strong.

Wednesday, September 3

Wind Southerly light with rain all during afternoon.

"Wilson" at Champney's.

"Hunter" at Batteau yesterday with 550 Qtls.

Arthur, son of Mr & Mrs George B Morris passed away last night after a short illness, he was in his twenty third year.

Thursday, September 4

Wind North East, blowing strong with rain all day.

Friday, September 5

Dull. Wind North East, but not so strong as yesterday.

Saturday, September 6

Fine day. Wind North, good breeze.

Sunday, September 7

Dull. Wind Southerly light with rain at night.

Monday, September 8

Shifting winds Southerly in forenoon to North in afternoon.

Tuesday, September 9

Wind East North East with drizzling rain, a disagreeable day.

"Glencoe" here from North at 11am. Mr & Mrs EJ Ryan want to St.

John's by "Glencoe"

Wednesday, September 10

Cold and disagreeable. Wind East North East.

Thursday, September 11

Dull, little or no wind.

"Wilson" still at Champney's East awaiting time to proceed to King's Cove.

Friday, September 12

A fine day. Sun shining, warm. Wind Southerly, light.

"Saffron" left Batteau today for here.

"Wilson" could have left for King's Cove today but she didn't.

Saturday, September 13

Wind today South West. Fine.

The body of John T. Day who left his home here between 5 and 6 o'clock this morning was found about noon in the water underneath store owned by Mr Rich Christian. The deceased had been ill health for the past 12 months or more.

"Glencoe" here from St. John's at 5pm.

A fine day for "Wilson" to go to King's Cove if her Capt wanted to go.

Sunday, September 14

A fine day. Wind N.N. East.

Mills here from St. John's 2pm.

Monday, September 15

Dull. Raining. Wind South.

"Wilson" still at Champney's - think she could have left for King's Cove today if she wanted to.

Tuesday, September 16

A disagreeable day. Wind North East.

The funeral of the late John T. Day took place this afternoon.

Wednesday, September 17

Fine day. Wind South.

A grand day for "Wilson" to leave for King's Cove but she did not. She is now 15 days at Champney's. It is plain to be seen how anxious her Captain is to get to King's Cove??

Thursday, September 18

Dull and sultry. Wind Southerly with fog in forenoon. Clear in evening with very little wind.

Although it was foggy in forenoon the wind was Southerly and it was a suitable wind for the "Wilson" to leave Champneys for King's Cove but again she did not leave port.

S.S. "Kyle" left Wesleyville at 10:45 this morning and is due here anytime after 7 o'clock this evening.

Friday, September 19

Wind North East increasing as day advanced and immediately after dinner it blew a gale for a while, then it moderated a little but still continued blowing very hard the remainder of the evening and first half of the night.

"Kyle" did not call here last night, She evidently passed on South without bothering to touch in here. This is the usual treatment handed out to us by Capt Connors (Capt of Kyle). Presume she landed our mail at Catalina.

Saturday, September 20

No Labrador mail at Post office here this morning for us although train passed up the branch around 10 o'clock last night for Clarendville. This is a fine state of affairs - we don't know now if J.T. Sheehan ordered any goods to be shipped him by this "Kyle" or not and she probably leaves St. John's this evening for Labrador again.

Wind North East until around 2pm when it shifted to South but it was very light.

Sunday, September 21

A fairly fine day. Wind Southerly.

Heard over the radio Saturday night, that the "Hunter" had arrived at Long beach (probably that day) from Labrador. She was reported as being out in Friday's storm and as having lost her motor boat off Cape Bonavista.

Monday, September 22

Dull. Wind North blowing strong

Albert Fowlow arrived Labrador this morning hailing for 700 Qtls.

"Saffron" arrived from Batteau Labrador at 3pm. This vessel left Croc on Saturday morning 20th and did not put in anywhere until arrival here. Wm Peddle has a voyage of about 700 Qtls.

"Wilson" arrived at King's Cove this am (early) having left Port Rexton at 6 o'clock yesterday morning.

Tuesday, September 23

Foggy in forenoon, raining no wind. In afternoon, wind North blowing strong.

"Saffron" landed cod traps this pm.

"Glencoe" here from North at 5pm and anchored in stream.

"Kyle" left St. John's at 11am.

Wednesday, September 24

A beautifully fine day. Wind North.

"Kyle" here at 5am bound to Labrador.

"Wilson" discharging coal at King's Cove this morning.

"Saffron" left Hodge's Cove at 6am.

Thursday, September 25

A fine day. Wind South West.

Louis Fowlow arrived from Labrador this morning hailing for 500 Qts.

Schooner "E & G Toope" from St. John's at 6pm and will land some goods tomorrow morning.

A beautifully fine evening with every appearance of a fine day tomorrow.

Friday, September 26

Wind Southerly with dense fog and rain until 3pm when wind shifted to South West with strong breeze.

Saturday, September 27

A very fine day wind North changing to South West after dinner.

Mr EJ Ryan underwent an operation at St. Clare's Hospital St. John's this morning.

Sunday, September 28

Wind South, light breeze in forenoon. A nice fine day.

"Wilson" arrived from King's Cove at 11:30am.

Monday, September 29

Wind South West shifting to North at 5pm blowing strong.

Tuesday, September 30

Fine day. Wind South West to West.

Carted 200 sacks "Robin Hood" flour from station today.

Wednesday, October 1

Dull. Wind Southerly fair breeze. Raining in afternoon.

"Glencoe" here from St. John's at 10:30 last night.

Thursday, October 2
Fine. Wind North nice breeze all day.

Friday, October 3
Wind North. Cold, fine.
Hazel Fowlow arrived from Labrador this morning hailing for 400
Qts
Mr EJ Ryan who underwent an operation at St. John's on Saturday 27th September is showing signs of improvement according to letters received from Mrs EJ Ryan by todays mail.

Saturday, October 4
Wind Southerly, blowing strong after dinner with heavy rain.
Radio reported at 8 oclock tonight that Mr EJ Ryan was much improved.

Sunday, October 5
A disagreeable day. Wind North North East, blowing strong most of day with drizzling rain.

Monday, October 6
Cold. Wind North. Fair breeze all day.

Tuesday, October 7
Fine day. Wind North, nice breeze.
"Kyle" left Twilingate early this morning coming fro Labrador.

Wednesday, October 8
Wind Southerly. Raining in afternoon.
S.S. "Kyle" from Labrador at 8 oclock last night.
Mills arrived from St. Johns this forenoon.

Thursday, October 9

Dull in forenoon, clearing after dinner with wind North blowing strong. Cold.

Friday, October 10

Fine day. Wind North light breeze from early morning until after dinner when it dropped off and at 5pm it was almost calm.

Kenneth Fowlow by salt wharf all day landing balance of his salt in our store.

Saturday, October 11

Wind Southerly, blowing strong with very heavy rain particularly between 1 and 3pm. After that it cleared and wind dropped.

"Kyle" due to sail at 6pm on last trip for season to Labrador.

Sunday, October 12

Fine day. Wind west, fair breeze.

"Kyle" sailed from St. John's at daylight.

Monday, October 13

Dull. Wind Southerly light.

"Kyle" here at midnight last night from St. John's.

Tuesday, October 14

Dull in morning but fine in afternoon. Wind N.N. West strong breeze.

Wednesday, October 15

Wind Southerly, blowing strong all day. Dull and overcast.

Three Random Schooners harbored here this morning bound to St. John's.

Thursday, October 16
Dull. Wind Southerly light foggy.

Friday, October 17
Wind North East, blowing strong at 6pm. Dull and raw.

Saturday, October 18
Fine in forenoon. Wind North. Wind Southerly in afternoon (4pm) with light rain.
Schooner "G & E Toope" by wharf at 5pm from St. John's.
"Glencoe" arrived from St. John's at 5:30pm.

Sunday, October 19
Raining all day - wind.

Monday, October 20

Wind in forenoon North East blowing very strong. After dinner wind North, strong getting cold.

Tuesday, October 21

Dull. Wind North light.

Hazel Fowlow finished landing balance of his salt today.

Wednesday, October 22

A very fine day. Nice and warm. Wind North shifting to South after dinner.

"Kyle" left Wesleyville early this morning coming from Labrador.

Thursday, October 23

A beautifully fine day. Wind South light.

S.S. "Kyle" here at 6:30 last evening from Labrador. Mr J.T.

Sheehan, Sam Miller and housekeeper came by "Kyle" from Batteau.

Friday, October 24

Dull morning. Wind Southerly blowing strong with a few heavy showers. Clearing after dinner. Wind shifting to South West and getting cold.

Saturday, October 25

Fine day. Wind South West blowing strong.

Sunday, October 26

Wind Southerly, blowing strong with very heavy rain from early morning until noon when wind shifted to South West and it cleared off and got fine.

Monday, October 27

A fine day. Wind North West blowing strong.
#James Peddle started work in shop this am#.

Tuesday, October 28

Dull. Wind Southerly blowing strong in evening.
"Bertha E. Way" commenced discharging at 11am having arrived from Labrador last night.
"Hunter" here from Long beach at 1pm with summer's voyage of Labrador codfish.

Wednesday, October 29

Wind Southerly in forenoon shifting to N.N. East after dinner.
Raining all day.

Thursday, October 30
A very fine day. Wind Northerly.
Landed 596 Qtls from "Bertha E. Way" today.

Friday, October 31
Dull. Wind Southerly, light.
"Bertha E. Way" finished discharging at 11:30am.
Wet snow falling after dinner.
"Hunter" hauled to wharf before dinner but it was too wet to land any fish.

Saturday, November 1
Wind North, light. Dull and cloudy.
"Bertha E. Way" sailed at 2pm for home.
"Hunter" commenced discharging at 2:30pm.
Albert & Louis Fowlow left for Catalina this am where they have their Labrador fish sold.

Sunday, November 2
Fine day. Wind Southerly. A scad of snow fell last night.

Monday, November 3

Wind Southerly with dense fog all day and rain in afternoon.
Mills arrived from St. John's yesterday.

Tuesday, November 4

Dull wind. North East light. Weather cleared a little after dinner when we commenced discharging from "Hunter" about 3 o'clock and took out 76 Q'ts between then and 5pm.

Wednesday, November 5

Fine. Wind West.

"Hunter" discharging all day.

S.S. "Glencoe" here at 5:30pm from St. John's.

Thursday, November 6

Dull. Wind Southerly light.

"Hunter" finished discharging at 12:30pm total turnout 548 Qtls.

Friday, November 7

Dull, foggy. Wind Southerly very light.

"Hunter's" crew settled up today.

Wind Easterly in evening.

Saturday, November 8

Wind South East, with drizzling rain.

"Hunter" ready for home this pm.

Sunday, November 9

Fine day. Wind North light.

"Hunter" left for home early this morning.

Monday, November 10
Wind South light. Raining practically all day.

Tuesday, November 11
Raining - wind Southerly light.

Wednesday, November 12
Fairly fine. Wind South, soft.

Thursday, November 13
Raining off and on during day.
Wind South light shifting to North East.

Friday, November 14
Fine, clear and cold in forenoon. Wind North. In afternoon cloudy, wind North East.

Saturday, November 15
Dull. Wind North East light.
Miss Melvina Peddle started work in shop this am.

Sunday, November 16
Wind Southerly blowing strong.
Schooners "Annetta Loretta" and "E.G. Toope" arrived from St.
John's this pm.

Monday, November 17

Wind North East blowing very strong. Raining all last night and early this morning which turned to snow about noon.

Mrs M. Hoskins passed away early yesterday morning. The deceased was in her 79th year and leaves 2 sons and six daughters to mourn her passing.

Tuesday, November 18

Fine day. Cold. Wind North West blowing strong. It froze hard last night.

The funeral of the late Mrs Hoskins took place this morning.

Wednesday, November 19

Wind Northerly, fine day.

Thursday, November 20

Dull, calm and mild. An inch or two of snow fell early this morning.

Friday, November 21

Wind Southerly blowing strong with rain in early morning and afternoon.

Saturday, November 22

A fine clear, cold day. Wind North West blowing strong.

Sunday, November 23

Wind North West. Fair breeze fine.

"Angela B. Mills" arrived from St. John's at 5:30pm.

Monday, November 24

Dull. Wind Southerly with some fog and rain.

Tuesday, November 25

Wind North East, nice breeze. Dull in forenoon but fairly fine in afternoon and getting cold.

Wednesday, November 26

Wind Southerly blowing strong after dinner. Fine but a bit cold.
"Wilson" pumped today.

Thursday, November 27

Raining early morning until 10am. Wind S.S. West shifting to West and blowing very strong.

"Glencoe" here from St. John's at 5:30pm.

Friday, November 28

Cold last night and this morning. Fine day. Wind North West blowing strong.

Saturday, November 29

Wind North, cold with snow showers.

"Saffron" arrived from Hodge's Cove at 11 o'clock last night with her summer's voyage of Labrador codfish. This vessel arrived from Labrador on Sept 22nd and owing to the bad weather prevailing could not make their voyage before.

Landed 46 Q'ts from "Saffron" this forenoon but had to give up on account of snow showers when all laborers went home.

Sunday, November 30th

Fine day. Wind North. Very cold in forenoon.

Monday, December 1

Wind North West blowing strong and very cold. Some snow fell last night and this morning.

Landed 158 Qtls from "Saffron" today, but did not commence until 1pm owing to snow showers and uncertainty whether they would continue or not but it turned out to be a fine afternoon but very cold.

Schooner "exotic", Capt Wm H. Smith is here bound to St. John's.

Tuesday, December 2

Wind Southerly, a bit milder.

Landed 351 Qtls from "Saffron" today.

Blowing strong after dinner.

Wednesday, December 3

Mild. Wind South very little. There was some rain last night and early this morning.

"Saffron" finished discharging at 1pm.

Schooner "exotic" still here awaiting time to St. John's.

Thursday, December 4

Fine day. Calm.

"Saffron" landing salt left from fishery.

"Exotic" left for St. John's early this morning.

Friday, December 5

Soft, mild and calm.

"Saffron's crew settling up today.

Saturday, December 6

A beautifully fine day, little or no wind.

Schooner "Mabel Dorothy" arrived from Sydney this morning with a cargo of coal (197 tons) consigned to F.J. Morris. The "Mabel Dorothy" is an Auxiliary vessel and left Sydney for Wednesday 3rd.

Sunday, December 7

Dense fog all day. No wind. Heavy rain after nightfall.

Monday, December 8
No wind. Thick fog. Raining at 6pm.
"Saffron" ready for home after dinner.

Tuesday, December 9
Wind North East, light with drizzling rain.
"Saffron" left for home Hodge's Cove at 10:30am.

Wednesday, December 10
Fine day. Wind North East, light. About two to three inches of snow fell last night.

Thursday, December 11

Mild. Wind Easterly light. Snowing all day.

"Mabel Dorothy" sailed early this morning for Grand Bank.

Mills and Stoyles returned to port this morning.

Friday, December 12

Mr & Mrs W.N. White went to St. Johns this afternoon.

Saturday, December 13

(No Entry)

Sunday, December 14

(No Entry)

Monday, December 15
(No Entry)

Tuesday, December 16
Fine day. Wind West, fair breeze.

Wednesday, December 17
Wind Southerly, blowing strong in afternoon. Snowing at 4pm.

Thursday, December 18

Fine day. Cold. Wind North West blowing very strong.

Hauled up motor boat today.

Roads covered with ice, making walking almost impossible.

Friday, December 19

Wind South light. Snowing at noon.

Rev Father Kinsella received a telegram, this morning advising him of the sudden death of Gerald Sheehan in the Railway yard at St. John's. The deceased was the youngest son of Mr & Mrs J.T. Sheehan and was employed by the Railway as Brakesman.

Saturday, December 20

Fine day, a bit cold. Wind North West light.

Train in at 3pm bringing body of the late Gerald Sheehan.

Sunday, December 21

Wind North East, blowing strong with snow from early morning until noon when it cleared up.

Monday, December 22

Mild, wind Southerly strong with snow showers in forenoon.

The funeral of late Gerald Sheehan took place yesterday afternoon 2:30. It was attended by practically everyone in the place and was the largest funeral seen here for a long time.

The afternoon (from noon to 4pm) turned out nice and fine, with sun shining.

Tuesday, December 23

Wind North East blowing strong with thick heavy snow from 11am until 2pm. Wind then veered further Northerly clearing and becoming colder.

One of the two vessels built for Henry Stone the past summer for the British Government was towed here this afternoon en route to St. John's.

Wednesday, December 24

Wind North East, raw.

Christmas Eve - everything very quiet.

Thursday, December 25
Fine day. Wind North.
Mills arrived from St. John's 7pm.

Friday, December 26
Mild. Wind North East.
All stores closed today.

Saturday, December 27
Wind North East. Cold and raw.

Sunday, December 28
Wind North East with snow in forenoon but clear and mild in afternoon.

Monday, December 29

Mild. Wind North, light.

Mr & Mrs W.N. White here from St. John's by train at noon.

Tuesday, December 30

Wind East North East, fair breeze.

"Glencoe" left St. John's at 11am.

Wednesday, December 31

Wind North East, shifting to North blowing and cold.

"Glencoe" arrived from St. John's at 7:30 last evening and remained in port until daylight.