Woods Labour

Mr. J.J. Thompson, President of the Nfld. Lumbermen's Association discusses some of the present aspects.

Dear Mr. Editor;

I want to speak to the Newfoundland Loggers and those generally concerned with that part of our so much needed industry, through the columns of your much esteemed paper. What I have to say may not be so encouraging as one would wish it to be, but it is most important that I should state as clearly as possible the position facing the Logger who finds himself so situated as to have to seek a living at that particular Trade.

It would make my task easier and my report more willingly accepted if I were able to state that all was well with the Logger. However, that is not the case, but what I will say is that I am fully satisfied that everything possible has been done by your representative to get for you your full rights.

The 20th. meeting of the Woods Labour Board has now closed and no doubt the Loggers are anxious to know what has been done. That is the purpose of this letter.

The 20th. meeting of the Woods Labor Board opened on Wednesday, August 11th. The Union representative went to the Board with the request that the Basic rate of pay for Loggers be set equal to that of Mill-workers, with a cost of living bonus, and this I must say was not taken very well by Company representatives. But we felt and still feel that the logger is entitled to and must get that pay if the Mills are to be kept going. The chief argument against such a rate for the Logger is that cutting wood is not classed as Industrial work, but on a par with Agricultural work. Here I must state that during my six years of contacts with the paper companies on the loggers' behalf I have found that the very lowest class of work has been taken as a standard by which to class the Logger. The fact that this is so is obvious, since, as you know, the Logger has been and still is, the very lowest paid person in Newfoundland. However, the demand for rate now before the Board, namely, 45 cents per hour, will remain there until settled in favour of the logger.

To partly meet our request for this raise in pay, the Companies offered a five cents per hour increase, which would make the rate forty cents in steady of thirty-five. This rate was refused by us. We could not accept it, because (1) it did not meet our request; and (2) with that rate they wanted to increase the Board rate to $1.00 per day. This, in effect, would be more disastrous to loggers, because once the Board reached that stage it would be pretty hard to get it reduced, and in the event of men losing time through sickness or bad weather or other conditions, the loss would be much greater than the gain, and the Logger would suffer as a result. It was definitely stated to the Board that Loggers would not work under such conditions. No one could blame them. We succeeded, however, in making the picture look a little brighter by getting the Board rate reduced to 50 cents per day with wages at 35 cents per hour, or $3.50 per day, which will leave the Logger $3.00 clear. There is no need for me to make any comment on the advantage of this reduced rate in Board in the event of lost time by sickness or otherwise as the Log-

A Tribute To An Old Comrade

He was not old in years but it seemed to us that we had always known him. His cheery smile and swinging step were a part of the life we knew and loved before 1939 came with its challenge to heroes like him. We missed him with others but hoped that someday he would be back with the gang once more. When the news came that Lt. G. A. K. MacPherson had answered the final roll call it brought sorrow and sincere regret to many. To some there came that sorrow which is intimate and a personal loss which demands courage matching that heroic spirit which sustained him; to all such we extend our heartfelt sympathy and breathe a prayer for strength. But to a wider circle of old comrades and admirers there came also a sense of personal loss.

For a number of years Allan Mac (as we usually called him) was a loyal and outstanding member of the Guards' Athletic Association and its teams. Respected by opponents as well as by his team-mates he seemed to typify all that was best in sport. How well we remember his stalwart figure in his playing position as full-back on the football team. The steady influence of his dependable personality as well as his sterling play, helped in no small measure to win the striking list of victories won by the team he served. At the Baseball diamond or at the Hockey rink it was the same story of a local "Great heart" in athletics. His sportsmanship was clean and inspiring and because he played for the sake of the game he gave it all he had: He was as strong in defeat as in success and his spirit was imperturbable. No matter how long the lead or how great the odds against him the game was never over for Allan Mac till the final whistle blew. Cheerfulness, courage, courtesy and confidence characterised him at all times.

Then came the great game and he played it with the same spirit till the final whistle ended the game down here. When the ranks reform and friendly battles begin again, some youngsters who gained their inspiration from him will carry on the tradition, and team-mates and admirers will say "it is the Allan Mac touch once more."

Meantime—
"Let us not think of our departed dead
As caught and cumbered
In these graves of earth;
But think of death as of another birth,
As a new freedom for the wings outspread,
A new adventure waiting on ahead."
From members of the Guards team and their supporters.

Sports Dance Big Success

The very fitting final to the big Military Sports Meet this week was the dance in the Town Hall on Wednesday night. Despite the heavy rain that fell early in the evening a large crowd turned out for the dance and from reports heard, the affair was a great success.

The music was supplied by the Cadet Orchestra which was comprised of the following people, Mrs. R. Southcott J. Byrne, Leo Hartley, W. Parsons and J. Power.

Mr. Wilfred Maloney of 1st Avenue is now spending a vacation at Deer Lake.

Nfld. Girls Enjoy C.W.A.C. Training

By CAPT. FRED R. DAVIES (Public Relations Officer Canadian Army in Nfld.)

KITCHENER, AUGUST 25, I've had the pleasure of seeing and talking to the Newfoundland girls at present taking their training at No. 3 Basic Training Centre for the Canadian Women's Army Corps located here. Forty-six happy, healthy girls, looking trim in their new uniforms greeted me on my arrival and convinced me that they thought the C.W.A.C. was the finest organization in the world, that the officers who have charge of their training are wonderful beyond expression and the non-commissioned officers are generous without price. All in all I gathered that the girls were having a wonderful time and thoroughly enjoyed their new experience.

Since leaving Newfoundland the girls have travelled a good many miles and have found impressions of Canada and of the people. Canada, naturally can't compare with Newfoundland, in their opinion. One lass informed me that Canada lacked the natural look of Newfoundland, it looked too "man made" according to her. Despite the obvious drawback they like the country and on their trip from an east coast Canadian port to Kitchener were shown both Montreal and Toronto. The time spent in these two cities was heartily enjoyed and both places made a decided impression upon the girls.

Lieut. Eunice Arnold, the officer in charge of Kennedy Barracks where the girls reported has certainly won a place in their hearts. She was described as wonderful, which incidentally was a word I heard a good deal. In fact the replies to most of my questions brought out that everything was wonderful and the girls just loved the whole experience.

Canadians aren't as friendly as the Newfoundlanders, I was informed and I really couldn't argue with that point having spent eleven months in Newfoundland and learned something of the friendly and hospitality of the people. The girls have been kept busy but will have an opportunity to meet Canadians very shortly. It has been arranged that the citizens of Kitchener will entertain the girls to Sunday dinner following a church parade. Sunday, the 29th. of August, is the day on which the Canadian Women's Army Corps will observe its second anniversary of service to the Allied cause. They are looking forward to this event and expect they will find their Canadian hosts nearly as good as they would expect in Newfoundland.

On the parade ground where the girls showed off how much they had learned of their drill in three days, they were competing with fifty girls from the British West Indies who are taking training at the centre. I was told, with a good deal of pride and much glee, that a softball team from the Newfoundland group had defeated the Canadian girls in a spirited game, and the officer in charge of the girls, Capt. Betty Hawkins, informed me that the girls were very pleased over this achievement.

During my conversation with the group the question of home sickness came up. Most of the girls confessed that at first they had felt a bit homesick, but they were all over that now. There are too many things to do, too many new sights to see, and too much to learn, for the homesick feeling to last very long. I also asked about the food and the

Nfld. Sailor Photographed With The Dutchess of Kent

By the last mail Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mercer of Chamberlains received a letter from their son Clare of the Royal Navy describing the opening of the Caribou Club at St. Martin's Place, London, on July 20th. last.

Contained in the letter was the photograph taken on that occasion by the Daily Mirror and showing Seaman Mercer speaking with her Royal Highness the Dutchess of Kent.

The photograph is much prized by the parents of the young sailor, who has now spent nearly four years overseas.

Speaking of the Caribou Club, high tribute was paid to the comfort provided for the men of Newfoundland's Fighting Forces overseas and already it is recognized by them as a real "home away from home."

From Overseas

The following letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. S. Lane.

136-166 (Nfld. Field Regt. R.A. B.N.A.F. 29/5/43)

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Lane.

Will you accept my deepest sympathy in the death of your son.

K. C., as we used to call him, was my signaller and was killed by a mortar bomb during a big German counter-attack near Madjez-el-Bah, whilst doing his duty in a forward position. (On April 29th.)

He was a grand lad, first class at his job, and a real man. He and I had shared many adventures, and he set an example to my party in his high sense of devotion to duty and by his courageous and cheerful outlook on the job that we were doing.

Only a few days before, K. C. and a few of us had gathered with the Padre in a service of thanksgiving for our previous safe-keeping.

The regiment and the troops are proud of K. C. Lane and we feel that we have lost a fine man and a friend.

Sincerely yours,
R. P. R. Child,
Capt. R.A.

N.C.O. Dance

The N.C.O.'s of the C.C.C. held a very enjoyable dance evening last week. This affair in the K. of C. Hall one was very well organized by the N.C.O.'s, and the Ladies of the C.C.C. Auxiliary attended and served refreshments. The music was supplied by the Cadet Orchestra, and met with the hearty approval of all present.

The proceeds of this dance were passed over to the C.C.C. Cigarette Club, per Mrs. P. Maloney.

Mr. Ben Downer, well known resident of Greenspond arrived here on Thursday to spend a brief stay with his sister Mrs. George Mercer of Third Avenue.

girls confessed that they were gaining weight. Later inquiries revealed that they had gained an average of five pounds per girl.

Boy friends came in for comment also, and it appeared that every girl had one in particular she missed. The only message I was asked to pass on was that they were healthy and would write as often as they could.

Attends Odd Fellows Convention

Mr. H.P. Hiscock of The E.V. Royal Store arrived back in town during the week after a visit of two weeks to Canada. Mr. Hiscock attended the Annual Convention of the Odd Fellows' at Truro, as the representative of Exploits Lodge No. 2, I.O.O.F., Grand Falls. Owing to wartime exigencies, the Convention this year occupied only one day; and six hundred members were in attendance. Mr. Hiscock was the only person from Newfoundland to attend. During this session a special collar was presented to the Loyal Bonavista Lodge. This award was made to the Bonavista Lodge for its having the highest percentage of new members for the past year. Mr. Hiscock accepted the Collar on behalf of the Bonavista Lodge.

Mr. Hiscock spent two weeks in Stewiache, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Fulton, and had a most enjoyable vacation at their Summer home on Shorts Lake.

During his two weeks in Canada Mr. Hiscock had a brief glimpse of the Canadian people's war effort, and he says the enthusiasm and energy which is to be seen everywhere is indeed a wonderful credit to Canada.

All areas referred to above are Danger Areas and any persons entering them without permission, which may be obtained from the undersigned, will do so at their own risk.

Commander,
Canadian Troops,
Botwood: 2ia28

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Mercer of 3rd Avenue will leave tomorrow night for Greenspond on a vacation to Mrs. Mercer's father, Mr. Chas Downer. They will be accompanied by their young son.

Miss Doreen Maher of Corner Brook is now spending a vacation in Grand Falls as the guest of Mrs. P. Sampson of Suvia Road.

A.N.D. Company Reports Deficit

The Anglo-Newfoundland Development Company reports a net operating profit last year of $292,992 compared with $542,793 in 1941. After debenture interest and redemption and directors' fees the company reported a deficit of $70,000 compared with a net income of $530,000 in the previous year, according to a Canadian Press despatch from Toronto.—Telegram.

Young Priests Have Eventful Trip Home

SPENT SIX YEARS IN ROME

Listeners to BBC last week may have heard Miss Margot Davies, the popular Newfoundland land commentator, describe partially the experience of two young Newfoundlanders who have just finished a six years ecclesiastical course in Rome and were then on their way home. They are Rev. Loyola Lacey and Rev. Joseph O'Brien who were ordained in the spring of this year and left Vatican City on May 25th., travelling in devious ways and arriving here on Sunday past.

Fr. Lacey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J.J. Lacey, and Fr. O'Brien, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James O'Brien of Carbonear and nephew of Fr. E. J. O'Brien of Northern Bay.

Leaving Italian soil with practically nothing but their soutanes they travelled through France to Portugal, remained four weeks in Gibraltar as guests of Bishop Fitzgerald, leaving there as chaplains on a small steamer and were several days in London where they met many Newfoundlanders, old friends and others, particularly our own boys of the various forces all of whom were as equally glad to see them as they were once more to co-mingle with fellow Newfoundlanders. Both young clerics are warm in their praise of the reception and hospitality received practically everywhere enroute, particularly at the Trade Commissioner's office in London where they describe Miss Davies as practically wearing herself out in the service of our overseas lads. Although they had many and varied experiences, the trip across the Atlantic was uneventful, arriving at an eastern Canadian port where they entrained for home.

Despite the vast experiences they have had, the stupendous things witnessed in the past six years in the Eternal City, the marvelous places of scenic and historic interest they have visited they both declare there is no place like old Newfoundland and in this sentiment they have many supporters indeed. The happy parents of both priests are being showered with congratulations to-day on their safe return home to devote their young lives to the holy priesthood.—Telegram.

Pioneer Citizen Passes

Grand Falls was shocked to learn of the death on Sunday morning of Mr. Edgar Osmond of Station Road, pioneer resident of Grand Falls, and veteran riverman of this District. The late Mr. Osmond was 69 years of age and was born at Greenspond; he came to Grand Falls in October 1905. He was a well known and trusted river foreman with the A.N.D. Coy., and was for 32 years a member of The Exploits Lodge I.O.O.F. No. 2. He leaves to mourn a wife, three daughters, Mrs. Annie Bradbury, Lilly Cook of Grand Falls and Myrtle Osmond, the latter is at present in Canada; two step-daughters six sons, five sisters, three brothers living in Grand Falls and a number of Grand Children. Mrs. A. Payne of Fogo is a sister of the deceased.

The deceased was well known throughout this District, and his death will be greatly regretted. The Advertiser extends sympathy to his wife and family.

C. W. A. C.

On Friday evening, 20th. August the first draft from Grand Falls of the Canadian Women's Army Corps left Grand Falls to join up. Their names are Misses Bertha Cox, June Gill, Vera Goudie, Jane Hedges, Loretta Janes, Hilda Maidment, Bernice White and Audrey White.

Compared with other Towns in Newfoundland this was a small number from Grand Falls, where there must be very many more who could avail themselves of this opportunity of joining up.

It is to be regretted that when the C.W.A.C. Recruiting Officers were in Grand Falls one month ago, they were given so little encouragement.

These young women are going to play a most important part in the War Effort of the United Nations when, with their training completed, they will be able to release men for Active Service overseas.

EDITORIAL COMMENT
Still At Large?

The other evening an announcement was made over the Berlin radio that Prime Minister Churchill and Premier Stalin had arrived in Canada, and were on their way to a conference with President Roosevelt, says the New Glasgow Eastern Chronicle.

We venture that not many paid attention to the story, but it came vividly to people's minds when the public announcement the next evening was that Prime Minister Churchill was really in Canada.

It is evident that there is a subversive leak in Eastern Canada that has not yet, after three years of war, been caught up with. Somewhere in this province there is to all appearances direct communication with the enemy, and by fair means or foul it should be smashed, and that without delay. Nothing should be taken for granted, but let the probe go to the bottom of things.

Occasionally an interned prisoner escapes, but he is soon rounded up, as all the forces are turned loose to apprehend him.

This other form of underground enemy is more dangerous than the escaped prisoner, and greater effort should be made to contact and bring him to justice."

Trans-Atlantic Air Service

The increasing speed of air service is indicated by the fast time made on the round trip of a big plane operated by Trans-Canada Air Lines crews in the newly established Canadian Government wartime trans-Atlantic service. The plane which took off from Montreal airport late on a Thursday afternoon, reached the British Isles in the record time of 12 hrs., 26 minutes, landed early Friday morning. With just over twenty-four hours on land, the same plane started off for Canada on Saturday afternoon and arrived in Montreal Airport early Sunday, 15 hours and 6 minutes after take off, having faced rainstorms throughout the entire crossing. Thus, less than 72 hours, or three days as Canadians usually mark time, were required to traverse approximately 6,000 miles, with a bit of a breather in between. The eastbound trip from Montreal was a record, clipping off 25 minutes from the previous best non-stop flight from Montreal to Britain. On both trips large consignments of army mail were carried. On the record-breaking eastbound trip the plane was in charge of Captain Ronald F. George, operations manager of Trans-er himself knows this better than anyone can tell him. In an interview with the Food Controller we were given to understand that some changes in the distribution of certain food for Loggers were in the process of being made, and it is hoped that a more generous supply will be assured.

Another question which has been a bother to most everyone, namely, that of dividing Union fees, has now been satisfactorily settled. The method followed for the past three years was that men working in Deer Lake, Corner Brook, areas who belonged to the Newfoundland Lumbermen's Union paid into the Company's office their Union fees. The fee was then divided. Half of it went to the Unions operating in the areas, the other half to the Newfoundland Lumbermen's Association. Consequently hundreds of men could not be made members of any Union because the Union of which they wanted to be members did not receive sufficient fees from them to justify registering them as members. This state of affairs will now be discontinued, and each man will support whatever Union he wishes, and his money will not be divided. He will therefore have full rights to membership in his Union. I am also happy to be able to state that we have now reached the place where we consider ourselves working under a closed shop system in the woods. Anyone who has made up his mind not to support a Union may go a little further and make up his mind not to come to the woods now or in the future. What I have said here will give rise to many varied questions as to the value or otherwise of Labour Unions, (and so I may as well state clearly my opinion. I have held the belief that every class of work in Newfoundland should have its union, and only one. I cannot find any reason to believe that several unions trying to make bargains for one class of work is either essential or conducive to success. While that is so in the Loggers case, the Logger in my opinion is partly, if not totally, responsible for the position in which we find ourselves today, and I can only hope that at some near future date the Loggers will themselves fully realize that and get together in their own interest.

In all my negotiations with the paper mills' managements I have never seen the slightest indication that they were divided in their opinions or that they possessed different views. When they can say that of us it will be far easier to deal with them, and our advantages will greatly increase.

American Fighters

There is something satisfying to the soul of all Americans in the heroic-deeds of our fighting men. They are stamping the character and the reputation of America on the pages of history. For they are a part of us, not selected for superior bravery, and the way they comport themselves in this world crisis will give the meaning that the words "America" and "American" will have for present and future generations.

The fighting qualities of Americans of the past could not leave us in doubt that the American soldier would stand up to any other fighting man on earth. But it is gratifying to have it freshly demonstrated. It was well known that German and Japanese soldiers were fanatical fighters, taught from early youth that they were destined to be conquerors, and that death for the fatherland was a high honor. Americans, on the other hand, were brought up in the ideals of peace; believe in the theory of "live and let live," and in the policy of nations living together comfortably as good neighbors so the military fanatics judged them "soft."

But there was nothing soft about the act of Capt. Colin Kelly catapulting himself with his load of bombs onto the deck of a Japanese battleship. There was no softness in the take-off for Tokyo by Jimmie Doolittle and his flyers when they saw no chance of getting back to friendly land. If death was deliberately slapped in the face it was when Commander Howard W. Gilmore, wounded on the deck of his submarine, gave the order, "Take her down," which saved his men and his ship, but not himself. Nor was there a lack of hardness in that company of Capt. Richard L. Harris, which, from the wheat field at the bottom of Hill 523 in Tunisia crawled up the slope in the face of German mortars and machine guns—crawled up by twos and threes, and then by ones, as the number grew smaller.

Every day brings us new stories of such heroism of our men. Again Americans are demonstrating their mettle.—It makes all of us thrill with pride at being American.

Juvenile Delinquency

We are hearing and seeing these days mischief and immorality in early teen age which, in reality is caused by war hysteria. A similar situation always develops in times of stress and strain, unless adequate steps are taken early enough to direct the pent-up emotions into worth-while channels. One writer recently said; "Parents, churches, and schools have shirked their responsibilities to this most neglected age group, and unless something is done immediately, in a constructive way, we face a period of startling juvenile delinquency. We wonder if we older people have been "asleep at the switch" too long already to guide and help our youth build clean, happy and useful lives.

Now a few words in general to Labour.

For some time past I have contemplated speaking to labour generally throughout the country. It is not my wish or intention to dig up the misfortunes, or it might be more correct to say, past neglects, but it must be borne in mind that labor has not taken a very definite stand or concerned itself with what might be termed vitally important questions which affected its welfare or tended to lessen its rights. Therefore it has become most imperative that someone should send out a call to Labour to awake from its state of indifference, and view with some interest passed opportunities missed and the prospects which lie ahead. Let me ask the question, what part did Labour play in the shaping of our national life in the days of Responsible Government? Did labour assert its right to have something to say about shaping its future destinies or our economic welfare?

It is true that business has had a large say in almost every respect of Newfoundland industrial, commercial, social and political life, and it cannot be denied that religious organizations and other societies have raised their voices in matters of general interest. But, important though these groups are, there has been and still is need of a balance of power to effect a definite change in our state of living. That balance of power I want to say is Labour—solidly united, courageously led, and wisely advised.

Many attempts have been made to organize labour and it is true that Labour has been organized in small groups but that is not sufficient. There is no central body in which these groups can place any trust, and so in effect there is still sufficient division to render every effort almost useless.

Labour is not making full use of its advantages in our country's vital affairs. Someone may question the right of Labour to speak. Yes, we know to well from whence such questioning will come, but let me say, my friends, that just as Labour had to be recognized and its advice sought throughout England, Canada and the United States of America, as well as other countries, so will Labour be heard in Newfoundland. The day is coming when Labour will assume its responsibilities. The voice of certain groups in Newfoundland may be raised in protest against acts which may seem unjust or uncalled for, but when Labour as a whole rises up and shows its strength, it will be heard and recognized, and I can only say—God hasten that day.

Newfoundland is part of a nation of solidly united to end dictatorship once and for all time. Our boys are sacrificing their homes, comforts and pleasures, and even their lives, to gain for us what we believe to be freedom from want, freedom from pain, and freedom of speech. Here at home we have a battle to fight—a battle which must be waged right in Newfoundland, by Newfoundlanders, with Labour taking a leading part. It is just waiting for someone to lead, to begin and win that battle. It is my opinion that Labour should give our parliamentary Good-will Commission now travelling in Newfoundland a message to take back with them when they return home, and I think everyone knows just what that message should be.

Your truly
J.J. THOMPSON,

"MAN ABOUT TOWN"

Our Reporter's Report

Welcome indeed to this Dept. were the many kind words of our many readers received this week concerning OUR salute to the late Allan MacPherson in last week's issue. It will take a long time to cool our affections for "Big Mac".....Death seems to be reaping a sway among the pioneer citizenry of Grand Falls this month. On Monday Mr. Edgar Osmond veteran river man passed away at his home on Station Road. The news columns will very likely extend reference to this well known pioneer of Grand Falls.....The Military Sports according to the swing of talk went over swell on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of the past week.

What People Want

Ron Sullivan who for the past two and a half years has been serving on a Mine Sweeper in African waters, this week arrived home on a well earned furlough. Ron looks in top shape and speaks highly of life in the Navy.....Grand Falls also had the pleasure of a brief visit during the week of Brother Birmingham of St. John's, who we believe was a guest of Fr. Hogan at Bishop's Falls and came to look over Grand Falls ere returning to St. John's.....The Athletic family, the Vinicombs of St. John's had a representative of theirs see Grand Falls this week—Mr. James Vinicombe spent a week here on vacation.

Our Periscope.....On what people are saying this week.

Captain J.C. Steele of the U.S. Air Corps was here this week on 24 hours spare time.... he saw all the battles of the North African Campaign from El Alamein to Bizerte.....from the Bomb doors of an American Bomber....Capt Steele cherishes a souvenir made up of paper money from all the lands he has fought in and visited on his furloughs, from China to Russia—France to Berlin—Algiers to Bizerte..... last addition to this paper money chain was the Two-dollar Newfie Bill....The souvenir will be a war prize for the Steele family..... We learn with regret at press time of the death of Mr. Elias Cooper of 1st. Avenue. Mr. Cooper had been ill for only a short while and entered the Hospital last week. His death occurred on Wednesday Morning.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dwyer of Mill Road on Wednesday morning received a letter from their son Eric, who is with the British Forces in N. Africa. Eric is in top shape and sent a souvenir of an Algerian Bank Note to his parents.... Mr. and Mrs. Grand Falls will doubtless remember our former Police, Constable Roy Feaver who is now employed at electrical work in the Capital—Roy accompanied by his wife (nee Dorothy Stockley of this town) and daughter came here this week to attend the funeral of the late Edgar Osmond of Station Road.....Mr. Pat. Maloney of 1st. Avenue is now in St. John's visiting relatives on his annual vac. Pat. will consult medical advice while in the Capital.

People
Mrs. James Mercer of Third Avenue, who recently underwent an operation in the Hospital here, is now feeling fine. We are informed that Mrs. Mercer had a leg amputated.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Woolfrey of Pine Avenue are at present on a vacation at Carm anville. They are accompanied by their young son.

Miss Annie Hiscock, formerly employed at Dubow's Store, at Windsor, left during the week for Canada, where she will in future reside. We learn Miss Hiscock was accompanied by her sister Eva.

Mr. Stan Spencer, Game Warden in the Bishop's Falls Area was here this week.

Mr. Eric Moore of the Machine Room is at present visiting his parents at Twillingate.

Our Extras

Mr. Geo. B. Cater, well known Paper Maker will leave Grand Falls on the next express for St. John's where, we are informed, he will attend the annual meeting of the Nfld. Federation of Labour.

Mr. H.J. Taylor, well known employee of Ayre & Sons Ltd., in St. John's, arrived here this week to spend a holiday with his daughter Mrs. Wm. Mitchell, Pine Avenue. Mr. Taylor is accompanied by his wife.

Miss Hattie Bragg of Port Union is at present spending a short stay in Grand Falls..... Mr. R. Lazard of London, England, who had been visiting this country on business, and who had been in Grand Falls during the early part of the week, left again on Tuesday for England. Mr. Lazard went by plane.

Calls W.P.A.

Raymond Cole of the R.A.F. writes from Canada for us to extend his thanks to the W.P.A. of Grand Falls for cigarettes and other comforts received by him during his recent furlough here in Grand Falls....Ray also mentions that the sock which he received were knit by Mrs. A.G. Ogilvie of Grand Falls, and he is most grateful for same. Ray also sends his appreciation to the following—Mrs. P. Smith, Mrs M. Hillier, and Mrs. A. March.

Sergeant Allan Dwyer and Constable Lar McCarthy are now putting in a part of their time (Holidays) on Badger Road.....Pssss don't bounce to conclusions....It's wood they're after for the Winter months.... Traffic Constable Herb Peppy, who had been here for the past two weeks on special job returned to the Capital this week.... Sgt. Pittman brought a yank to town while we were enroute to press.... Ndrstan..... Some one started Heap big fight at Botwood.... Nyway folks look over the NEWS columns of this issue for the fax, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ash with their daughter Betty, spent last week visiting Queen's Cove, T.B., where they were the guests of Mr. Ash's mother.

Constable Williams, who had been to St. John's escorting a prisoner Thos. Ross Ackerman to the penitentiary, arrived home this week end.

Mrs. Geo. McDonald of 1st. Ave., who had been spending the Summer with her relatives at Gambo returned home this week with her family.

Mrs. John J. Kelly of Monchy Rd., who underwent an operation this week in St. John's, is now making very satisfactory progress.

District Magistrate Hollett, who had been visiting Lewisporte on business, returned to Grand Falls on Wednesday afternoon.

Seaman Joseph Keats is home on furlough. Rumor has it Joe is discharged (But this is not so). Joe has to be in St. John's again, by September 11th. He was badly wounded in a convoy bound to Russia in July 1942, and is still under the Doctors' care. Joe is well known and his many friends will do their best to make his stay home a pleasant one. He is the son of George and the late Jessie Keats.

Umbrella Wisdom

What on earth would you do without an umbrella? Umbrellas can still be bought but the ones offered aren't as good as those bought before the war so play wise and take care of the ones you have.

Sew a name tag inside of each umbrella you own. When you are not using an umbrella, hang it by its loop on a closet hook or put it in its box. Always dry an umbrella open before putting it away. And when you carry an umbrella closed, keep the strap buttoned around the ribs.

Cooked prunes pitted and stuffed with peanut butter, seasoned with celery, salt, chopped green peppers and salad dressing, make a nutritious salad. Serve four or five prunes for each serving on lettuce with French dressing.

Woman Wants a Husband the Man Who Choked Her on Stairs

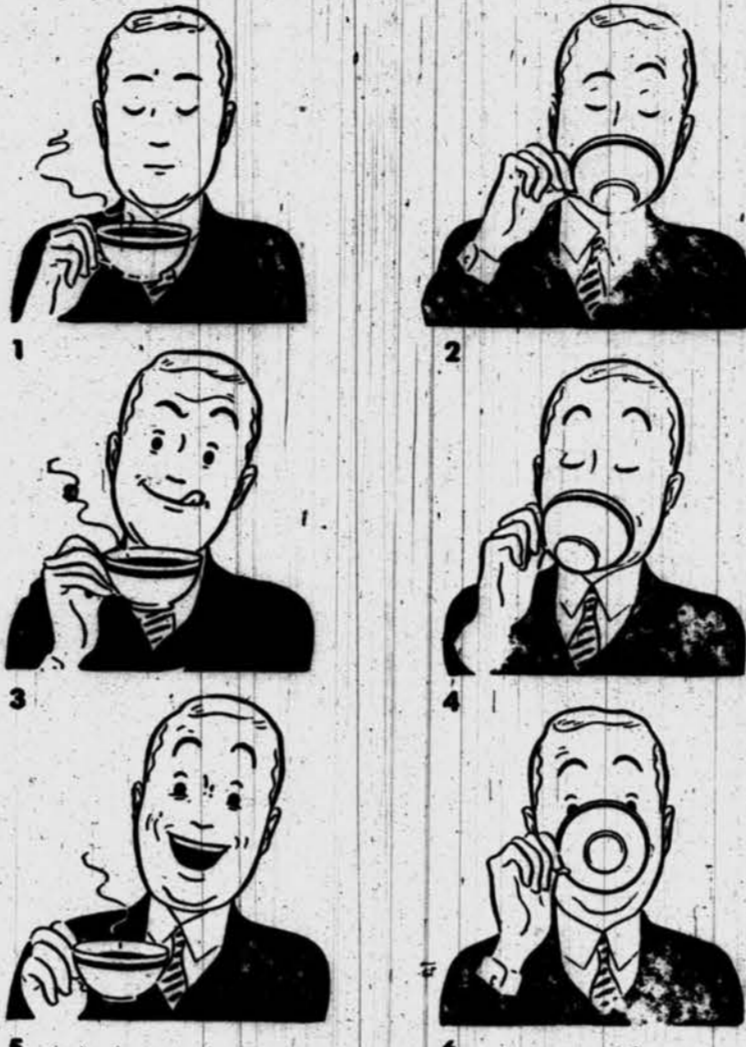

A woman gave police at Hartford, Conn., a careful description of the man she said dragged her down two flights of stairs by the hair, choked her, and threatened to kill her.

"Don't worry, lady," the desk sergeant comforted her. "We'll arrest him in no time at all."

"But I don't want him arrested," she protested. "Just find him. He promised to marry me."

Beauty Sleep

The greatest enemy to beauty is worry, irritability, sleeplessness. These bring the care-lines, the wrinkles and the tired feelings which are fatal to youth and beauty. By using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food you can restore sound, restful sleep which in turn smooths out the care-lines resulting from exhausted nerves and brings back the smiles and spirits which make the personality attractive.

Many beauty hints originate in Hollywood and they have a saying there that "to skimp on sleep is to skimp on beauty." Unfortunately many would sleep more if they only could but because of the run down condition of the nervous system find themselves spending many of the hours which should be devoted to sleep in wakefulness and worry. Morning comes and with it tired feelings, irritability and the care-lines which destroy youth and beauty. The vicious circle of neurasthenia has been established, for with loss of sleep comes further depletion of nerve force and weakening of the whole human system. By using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food you can soon check the exhaustion of the nerves and set in motion the building up process by which the nerves are restored and sleeplessness, headaches and tired feelings are banished. You will not be using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food long before you find yourself sleeping and resting well. Sleep restores to the body the nerve force expended during the day in the activities of life. The Nerve Food also improves the appetite, strengthens the action of the vital organs and gives the new energy and vigor which is the foundation of beauty and success. If you are not familiar with the merits of Dr.

Chase's Nerve Food ask your friends about it, for there are few homes in which some one has not proven the splendid restorative effects of this well known treatment for the nerves. The benefits derived from its use are soon felt and your friends will comment on how much younger and better you are looking.

THEN SHE TOLD ME - NO MATTER HOW YOU DO YOUR WASH YOU NEED SUNLIGHT'S "EXTRA-SOAPINESS" FOR EXTRA-DIRTY SPOTS

YOU DON'T HAVE TO BE an expert to see how much soapier Sunlight is. Just feel a fresh cake of Sunlight. Notice its grand extra-soapiness. It's this marvelous added cleansing power that gets even "toughest" spots brighter! No wonder women everywhere say Sunlight Soap makes the difference between clothes looking half-washed or brilliantly bright.

Safe for colors. JUST PUT A TOUCH of Sunlight at those extra-dirty places. Instantly a thin film of soap comes in contact with the dirt. As the clothes are washed, Sunlight's deep-cleansing power gets into the clothes - gets even play clothes and grimy work shirts brighter! Yet Sunlight is so pure, it's absolutely safe for washable colors.

FOR A COMPLETE WASHING JOB YOU CAN'T DO WITHOUT SUNLIGHT

Botwood Notes

Another War Vet. of the last war has passed away in the person of Frank Elson, who died on Saturday, 21st. August, 1943, at his home in Northern Arm, Botwood. Frank had not been well for years, but was always able to get around and his sudden passing came as a surprise to his friends. He was laid to rest with military honours, the Guard of Honour and Firing Party coming from the Regiment stationed here. There were quite a number of War Veterans present, and the funeral service was conducted by Rev. Raymond Purchase, in the absence of Rev. S. I. Murley, minister of the United Church. To his mother, brothers and sisters, we extend our deepest sympathy.

We were glad to welcome home the following on leave;— Bert Wells of the Royal Navy, Herbert Mitchell of the Royal Navy, Wilson Eveleigh of the Nfld. Regiment; and Corporal Annie Dean of the C.W.A.C.

They are all looking splendid and fit. A time was given to them on Tuesday in the United Church Hall by the Home Front Association, and W.P.A. The usual gifts were given by the Association, and an enjoyable time spent.

Mr. Peter Boone, of Botwood, has gone to Lewisport on a business trip.

Mr. Eber Attwood underwent an operation in the Twillingate Hospital, and is progressing very satisfactory.

Mr. Arch. Buckley has returned from Twillingate Hospital where he had an operation for sinus trouble.

The writer had a letter from Miss Irene Dean, of the R. C. A. F. (Women's Division) from Canada, where she and her sister, Netta, are in training. They are enthusiastic about their new work, and enjoying life to the full. They visited Niagara Falls, and were more than delighted with the wonderful scenery round that place. They wish to be remembered to all friends.

News has been received that Signr. Charles Ryall, of the Newfoundland Heavy Artillery in North Africa, is in Hospital with malaria. However, he is on the mending hand and expects to be sent to a Convalescent Hospital soon.

Mrs. E.D. Pond, with her two sons, left by Clipper this morning for Canada, where the boys will enter College. We wish them every success in their new life.

Mr. George B. Cater left by last night's train for St. John's where he will attend the convention of the Newfoundland Federation of Labor as representative of The International Brotherhood of Papermakers.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

A Bill, "An Act in Relation to the Licensing of Life and Accident Insurance Agents" has been read a first and second time by Commission and published in the Newfoundland Gazette of 17th. August, 1943, for public comment.

The licensing of Life Insurance Companies is governed by the Insurance Companies' Acts 1906-1919, and of Accident Insurance Companies by the Accident Insurance (Licensing) Act, 1939. The present Bill provides for the licensing of agents acting in Newfoundland on behalf of such Companies, and follows closely similar provisions in Canadian provincial legislation. The Bill gives protection to the public by ensuring that agents fulfill certain requirements before they can obtain a license, and by prescribing certain rules governing their conduct as agents. It provides further safeguards against persons soliciting or writing insurance in Companies which are not licensed to do business in Newfoundland and which have not fulfilled the conditions, such as the deposit of securities in the case of Life Insurance Companies, required by the law.

Any person or persons desiring to make representation regarding the enactment of this Bill should do so in writing to the undersigned not later than the 30th. September, 1943.

(Sgd.) W.M. MARSHALL,
Secretary for Finance.

"Only One Thing For Rheumatism"

Sufferer Follows Good Advice—and Takes Kruschen

The writer of the following letter had a bad attack of rheumatism, and was advised to take Kruschen. He did so, with the usual happy results, and describes his experiences in the following words;—

"About two years ago I developed a violent attack of rheumatism in my left shoulder blade. I tried all sorts of remedies, but with no results, until one day my brother-in-law on hearing of my suffering exclaimed 'There is only one thing to cure rheumatism! That is—Kruschen Salts!' I decided to purchase a bottle, and for the first week took a teaspoonful in a glass of hot water each morning. The pain gradually disappeared, and I has now gone entirely. I am still taking my early morning dose, as I feel convinced that it is keeping me fit."—J.G.B.

Rheumatic conditions are the result of an excess of uric acid in the body. Two of the ingredients of Kruschen Salts have the power of dissolving uric acid crystals. Other ingredients of these Salts assist Nature to expel the, dissolved crystals through the natural channels.

SMILES

Of course you know about the absent-minded professor who heard himself knocking the ashes from his pipe and called; "Come in."

"Did you do much fighting during the last war, pa?"

"I did my share of it, sonny."

"Did you make the enemy run?"

"Yes, my boy, I certainly did."

"And did they catch you, pa?"

"Medicine," says an old doctor, "is usually the art of amusing the patient while nature cures the disease."

Good Sauce for Meat

Obituary

There passed peacefully away on Wednesday morning at the Northcliffe Hospital an old and respected resident of Grand Falls in the person of Mr. Elias Cooper of First Avenue.

The deceased who was 55 years of age was born at Point Leamington, N.D.B. and came to Grand Falls about twenty-five years ago, where he was employed by the A.N.D. Coy., and for the past few years was a well-liked worker with the firm of Goodyear and Sons, Contractors in Grand Falls.

The late Mr. Cooper had not been ill for very long, and his sudden passing on Wednesday morning came as a great shock to his family and the community. The deceased who was a man of very genial disposition, was very well known all over this District, and his death will be learned with profound regret. We extend deepest sympathy to his wife and family.

Telephoning Girl Friends Becomes Undoing of Youth in Chicago

An 18-year-old burglar got six months in jail because he couldn't resist long-distance telephone calls to three girl friends in Chicago after he broke into a coal company office in St. Louis.

He charged the calls to the coal company. The manager noticed the bill and turned it over to the police. The youth was arrested in Chicago on information furnished by one of the girls he called.

Bananas should be ripened at room temperature, not in the refrigerator.

If coconut is a little hard for desserts, soften it by soaking several minutes in milk or fruit juices.

To whiten napkins, use a tablespoon of borax in each two quarts of water used for rinsing.

Stains resulting from perfume can be removed from linen bureau scarves with hydrogen peroxide.

If pillows are forced into pillow cases that are too small for them, the cases will soon wear out.

ON THE HOME FRONT GERMS ARE THE ENEMY

"I first sprinkle my floors and stairs and rugs with water containing a few tablespoonfuls of PURO. That allays the dust -- and kills the germs."

PURO is the finest household disinfectant. Use it a few spoonfuls to the pail of wiping, sprinkling and scrubbing water. Use it in sinks and outhouses. Keep your house hospital clean and germ free with PURO.

And for cuts, scratches, and open sores of any kind—a cleansing with PURO in water prevents many little ailments from getting infected and becoming big ones. Sold by all the stores. Trade supplied by Gerald S. Doyle Ltd.
