Zum Beschluss

MAUREEN VOLK received her Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Regina in 1975, then spent four years at the Juilliard School in New York, where she studied piano with Sasha Gorodnitzki. During her studies in New York, she was awarded three Canada Council Arts Grants, as well as the Edna Riefsnyder Scholarship for outstanding achievements in piano at Juilliard. She received her Master of Music degree from Juilliard in 1977.

Miss Volk has performed in New York as well as in Canada, as a soloist, chamber musician, and accompanist. She was the winner of the William S. Boyd Competition in Augusta, Georgia, and as a result performed as soloist with the Augusta Symphony in February 1980. In March 1982, she performed the Shostakovich Concerto #2 with the Newfoundland Symphony Orchestra, and in February 1982 & 1984, she performed recitals in Gander, Grand Falls, Corner Brook, and Stephenville.

Miss Volk is currently an Assistant Professor with the Department of Music at Memorial University.
