Dr. Karem J. Simon

Dr. Karem Simon, born on Bell Island, received his formal schooling in St. John's, where he graduated from Brother Rice High School. He holds the degrees of Bachelor of Music and Education from Mount Allison University. While under the instruction of Clark Brody (Chicago Symphony) he earned his Master of Music from Northwestern University. At the University of British Columbia, where he was awarded the Doctorate of Musical Arts Degree, he studied with Ronald de Kant and Wes Foster.

Dr. Simon currently teaches public school music in Corner Brook where he has resided since 1980. He performs in local productions, chamber music concerts and solo recitals.

Mr. Gary Graham

Mr. Graham began his studies at Acadia University and then at McGill University. He spent several summers at the Banff School of Fine Arts in Piano Performance course. He has taught in Nova Scotia, Montreal and now for many years in Corner Brook. He has been Musical Director at the Stephenville Festival for eight years and is very active with Theatre Newfoundland and Labrador.
