INTERMISSION

Cave of the Winds

Russell Peck
(b. 1945)

*In
the Cave,
there is no sunlight.
Everyone has lost sight, eyes atrophied.
Plants abound in the Cave, nourished by vapors and black light.
The musicians of the Cave never read music. How could they?
All music is by feel. No one is watching. No inhibitions. Everyone moves to the music, ensembles in unison.
The Cave
is located on a Sethian node
three miles below the earth's crust,
underneath a cornfield near Regina, Saskatchewan.
The rock walls ring to one unchanging pulse, upon which all the cave dwellers build their spontaneous symphonies.*
