PROFESSOR DIANNE BAIRD holds undergraduate degrees from both McGill University and Memorial University and has recently completed a Master of Music degree at the University of Ottawa. She has studied with such notable artists as Carmen Mehta, Carolyn Hart and Ingemar Korjus and has performed in masterclasses with many other well known musicians and singers including Rosemarie Landry, Alan Fast, and Stuart Hamilton. Singing with the McGill Concert Choir, the Memorial University Chamber Choir, the Ottawa Choral Society, The Savoy Society, the Cantata Singers of Ottawa and Opera Lyra Ottawa, Dianne has gained much experience both as a soloist and as a musician. This is her second year as a member of the faculty at the School of Music.

A native of St. John's, Newfoundland, SARA LOUISE SMITH SECK received her Bachelor of Music degree from Memorial University where she studied with Paul Bendzsa, and her Master of Chamber Music degree from the University of Ottawa where she studied with Robert Cram. Further studies have taken her to the Banff Centre for the Arts during the summers of 1990 and 1992. Currently working as a freelance musician in Ottawa, Sara is a member of L'Ensemble Denis Schingh, and is often heard on CBC Radio and Radio Canada.

PAMELA KNIGHT BURTON was born in St. John's, Newfoundland. She received her Bachelor of Music and Bachelor of Music Education degrees from Memorial University, where she studied piano with Maureen Volk. To further her studies, she completed a Master of Music degree at the University of Western Ontario under pianist Ronald Turini, and she has also studied at the Guildhall School of Music in London, England. Pamela is currently living in Ottawa, where she teaches piano privately and performs as a chamber musician and accompanist. In November, Pamela and Sara performed at the National Gallery of Canada for the "Ottawa in Concert" series which was recorded by CBC Radio.

**The Avalon Trio would like to thank the following: the Canadian Music Centre for the loan of the scores for Looking Back 1978; Professor Kristina Szutor for her assistance with the Hungarian diction and translations of the poetry of Töredék and Nyári Ünne; and the composer Jack Behrens.*
